Tanker Blast Threatens Los Angeles Harbor Area

Explosion and resultant fire in the 6,000-ton tanker Markay at a wharf in Los Angeles Harbor threatened a second Texas City disaster as flaming fuel spread over the surface of the water. In foreground a fireboat is shown spraying an American President Lines pier. The Markay was loading butane when the explosion occurred.

U.N. Report Says Yugoslavia Mainly Responsible For Greek Guerrilla War

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y. (AP)—The United Nations' Balkan Investigation Commission's report holding Yugoslavia primarily to blame for support of guerrilla warfare inside Greece was made public today.

The commission's findings and recommendations, already made known in dispatches from Geneva, are expected to precipitate a showdown between Russia and the western powers on the Balkan problem.

Covering a three-month inquiry, the 230,000-word document was formally submitted to members of the Security Council last Saturday.

DEBATE NEXT WEEK

The council is expected to begin discussion of the report either Friday or early next week.

With Russia and Poland dissenting and France abstaining, the commission fixed upon Yugoslavia the primary blame for support of Greek guerrilla warfare, and held Albania and Bulgaria blameworthy to a lesser degree.

Disturbed political and economic conditions and persecution of minorities inside Greece were cited as contributing factors.

The commission recommended that the Security Council establish a commission or commissioner on the troubled frontier area of Greece for at least two years to observe incidents and settle disputes.

Such a commission or commissioner should, it established, report to the council every three months, and should have access to Albania, Greece, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

SUGGEST U.N. ACTION

With Russia and Poland opposed, the commission held also that support of frontier-violating bands should be considered a menace to world peace and subject to U.N. action.

To the majority report that Yugoslavia was the chief offender, the Russian and Polish delegations affixed a minority report, asserting the Greek government was primarily at fault.

A Greek representative during the on-the-spot inquiry charged that Bulgarian and Yugoslav interference in Greek internal affairs was aimed at incorporating Greek Macedonia in the federal Yugoslav state of Macedonia.

Both Yugoslavia and Bulgaria denied this charge.

The commission proposed that the Security Council recommend to the governments of Greece, Yugoslavia, Bulgaria and Albania that they try their utmost to establish normal good neighborly relations, abstain from all action likely to increase or maintain tension and unrest in the border areas, and "rigorously refrain" from any support of elements in neighboring countries aiming at overthrow of lawful governments of those countries.

SUGGEST TRANSFERS

The commission also proposed that the Security Council recommend to the governments concerned that they study practicability of concluding agreements for voluntary transfer of minorities.

Opposing the proposals, the Russian delegation said they were "based merely on the unfounded assertion of the Greek government regarding aid to guerrillas by the northern neighbors of Greece."

The Polish delegation dissented on the ground that the measures as a whole seem "ineffectual."

Nearly 200,000 U.S. Miners Idle; Steel Cuts Down

PITTSBURGH (AP)—Nearly half of the 400,000-odd soft coal miners in the United States were idle today in protest against passage of what they termed the "slave-labor bill," but there was some evidence the wildcat walkouts were breaking up.

The walkout had left 176,000 miners in 10 states idle. First production cuts were announced in the steel industry. The Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp. said it had shut down the equivalent of 4½ blast furnaces in the Pittsburgh district. Its Bessemer department at Youngstown, O., also closed, cutting off a flow of 1,500 tons of steel daily.

In Monongalia County, W. Va., a little band of 50 men returned to work at the Osage mine of Pittsburgh Consolidation Coal Co. Workers at another mine, National 5 of the Christopher Coal Co., were expected to go back today.

BACK AT DIGGING

Earlier, a United Mine Workers' leader in West Virginia, where 31,000 miners were idle, predicted half that number would be digging coal again today.

The measure the miners are protesting is the Taft-Hartley Labor Control Act, which imposes widespread restraints on union activity. It was framed following a series of crippling strikes in such major industries as coal and steel.

Meanwhile, government officials reported the Justice Department was investigating the sudden walkout to determine whether an injunction could be slapped on John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers (A.F.L.).

The Taft-Hartley Act provides the government may seek an injunction to halt national emergency strikes during 80 days of mediation, but the President would be required to appoint a board of inquiry to report to him first.

Airliner Damaged After Ocean Hop

NEW YORK (CP)—An Air France Constellation plane from Paris buckled this afternoon as it was coming to a stop on a 5,000-foot runway at La Guardia Field. The extent of damage was not ascertained immediately.

7 Hurt In Crash

EDMONTON (CP)—Seven persons were injured here today when a taxi and a truck collided on an east end street. John Noonan and William Feduniw, the most seriously injured, are in hospital.

800 Mechanics Strike

SEATTLE (AP)—A strike of 800 mechanics closed 40 automobile dealers' repair shops here today. Members of the Automotive Machinists' Union Lodge 289 (Ind.) rejected a 15-cent-an-hour wage increase offered by the Seattle Automotive Dealers' Association. The union asked a 25-cent increase, or $1.75 an hour.

No Blank Cheques

WASHINGTON (AP)—Secretary of the Treasury Snyder made plain to reporters today that he does not view the Marshall plan for European recovery as giving foreign countries a blank cheque on the United States for what they need.

Speed Cheques

OTTAWA (CP)—Revenue Minister McCann told Max Campbell, C.C.F., The Battlefords, Sask., in the Commons this afternoon that every effort was being made to expedite the payment of 1944 wheat participation certificates.

When U.S. Labor Bill Became Law

Secretary of the U.S. Senate, Carl A. Loeffler, centre, is pictured as he signed the Taft-Hartley labor bill in Washington after the senate's vote of 68 to 25 which overrode President Truman's veto. Looking on are the bill's co-authors, Rep. Fred Hartley (Rep.-N.J.), left, and Senator Robert Taft (Rep.-Ohio), right.

Jewish Underground Meets Members Of U.N. Committee

JERUSALEM (AP)—Irgun Zvai Leumi, underground Jewish organization, unfurled banners today in the all-Jewish city of Tel Aviv proclaiming to the visiting United Nations investigators: "This is our homeland; out with the British invaders."

Crowds cheered when the Irgunists draped the banners hastily over electric wires just before the arrival of the touring committee. Police tore down those they could reach and burned others.

The Irgunists, who have claimed responsibility for numerous killings, bombings, kidnappings and the wholesale prison delivery at Acre in May, apparently were in Tel Aviv in force.

Masked youths lined the route of the committee to the Municipal Building and tried to interfere with reporters and photographers.

James Pringle, Associated Press cameraman, was pushed around with several others by the Irgunists. Three policemen who stood nearby said: "We cannot interfere. We are only three and they are many."

The entire street was lined with posters.

ATTACK IN JERUSALEM

In Jerusalem itself, three men were reported unofficially to have been beaten and attempted to kidnap Allen Major, a member of the Palestine government secretariat assigned to the liaison staff of the U.N. committee. Witnesses said they were Jews. The attack was made at Major's apartment just outside Zone B, largest of the British citadel areas in the city.

Thousands jammed the streets of Tel Aviv to see the U.N. committee members and watch proceedings at the Municipal Building.

Mayor Israel Rokach appealed to the visitors to "Join us in our struggle to build this country for the salvation of the people."

"Tel Aviv awaits calmly and confidently your judgment," he said. "It cannot but believe you will do justice to the people of Israel."

PIONEERING SPIRIT

Emil Sandstrom of Sweden, chairman of the commission, replied: "Already during the tour we have seen the pioneering spirit of your work."

In Jerusalem, meanwhile, police announced the discovery of a mattress full of explosives in a house near the Salvia Hotel, where most of the U.N. commission is billeted. Discovery of the explosives was made during a search which followed the detonation of a grenade in a garden near the hotel Tuesday night.

The mattress of explosives, which police believe had been rigged as a booby trap in case the house was searched as a result of the grenade explosion, was detonated today.

No Early Ending Of Ration Plan, Says Minister

OTTAWA (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott in the Commons this afternoon announced an increase of three or four pounds will be allowed in the individual ration before the end of this year, but at the same time warned that the ration itself would have to remain in effect for some time to come.

He said two additional ration coupons will be declared valid in August and one or two late in November.

At the same time, the industrial ration will be advanced by 10 points in each industrial category, putting the basic industrial quota at 90 per cent of 1941 usage.

The current individual ration totals about 41 pounds yearly, which would be boosted to about 45 pounds with the proposed increase.

As for the termination of rationing, Mr. Abbott said:

"Our conclusion is that it is in the general interest, and particularly in the interest of householders and small businesses, that sugar rationing should be retained in full force at least until the 1948 supply prospects are clear, but at the same time to increase the rate of ration as rapidly as circumstances permit."

EARLIER ACTION

He observed that the consumer's sugar ration for 1947 was increased by three pounds April 1 and, in effect, by a further three pounds June 9 through the de-rationing of jams, jellies, marmalade and honey.

Mr. Abbott reviewed the world supply position and said that because of an exceptional crop in Cuba, Canada's share in the world pool had been increased by 22,000 tons of raw sugar. After adjustment for year-end carry-overs, the Dominion's total allocation for 1947 had been set at 626,000 tons.

However, a recurrence of the phenomenal 1947 Cuban crop was not expected next year.

At the same time, abnormal weather conditions were expected to reduce Canadian production of beet sugar.

"The conclusion we have reached," said Mr. Abbott, "is that while 1947 probable supplies seem likely to make possible the distribution of some seven or eight additional pounds of sugar per capita during the balance of this year, it would be prudent in the light of all conditions to plan for a greater than normal carry-over into 1948."

NOT FOLLOWING U.S.

Referring to the recent abandonment of consumer rationing in the United States, he said:

"Our considered view is that we should not follow that example in Canada. The main purpose, indeed I might say the sole purpose, of rationing is to ensure fair distribution at fair prices to all sections of the country and to all classes of consumers, whether household or industrial.

"Canada is a country of very great distances and in many sections is characterized by a rather thinly scattered population. Large industrial users of sugar are chiefly concentrated in a few areas.

PREVENT STOCKING

"If sugar were de-rationed, ordinary business judgment might lead most of these large industrial users to stock up heavily and such heavy restocking could absorb very large quantities of sugar, which in turn would almost certainly lead to disorderly distribution and spotty shortages creating acute local embarrassment in many parts of the Dominion.

"Our system of rationing is such that we cannot de-ration one class of consumer without opening up large gaps and loopholes in the system which would rapidly undermine it."

Italian President Resigns

ROME (AP)—Provisional president Enrico de Nicola sent his resignation to the Constituent Assembly today.

The resignation came after approximately 6,000,000 members of the Communist-dominated General Confederation of Labor had held a country-wide half-hour strike at mid-morning in protest against a series of attacks on Sicilian Communist headquarters Sunday.

De Nicola's message, read to a hushed assembly by Speaker Umberto Terracini, said his health prevented him from exercising "my functions any longer."

Only railway workers and employees in the most essential public services were exempted from the confederation's call for a "folded arms" work stoppage.

As whistles blew to announce the start of the strike, buses and other means of local transportation came to a halt in Rome.

Police Appeal To Tipster To Make Himself Known

VANCOUVER (CP)—Police today renewed efforts to locate a mysterious telephone tipster, as they prepared for the preliminary hearing of Elmer Johnson, 25-year-old baker charged with the strangling-slaying of Mrs. Norma Burton, killed in Stanley Park early Sunday.

Johnson, who claims he left the woman—his companion on a drinking party—unarmed in the park, will come up for preliminary hearing July 2.

For the third time, police today appealed for the tipster to make his whereabouts known. He telephoned police headquarters at 3:30 a.m. Sunday, saying he had found a man bending over a "dead woman" in the park. He said he grappled with the man, who broke away and escaped. He offered to wait at a taxi office.

Police, however, were unable to locate the caller or a taxi office in the vicinity where the call was placed.

The tipster loomed as a key witness as investigators checked the story of a taxi driver, Fred Jex, who told of picking up a man he described as "a very odd sort of person near the park entrance at 3 a.m. Sunday."

He said that because of "things that happened" he would have little difficulty in identifying the man.

"I should know him all right, said Jex. 'I sat beside him for half an hour, and he acted sort of odd throughout. Then at the end of the ride—in Burnaby—he brushed me off without paying his $3 fare. He seemed to have something on his mind."

"He told me about being out on a party. . . . He seemed anxious to give the impression that he had been to a party in either a house or apartment near the park entrance."

Fire In Ship Gives Crews Stiff Fight

JERSEY CITY, N.J. (AP)—Fire spread today through two holds of the United States President Lines' 10,780-ton cargo ship, Marine Flier, as longshoremen loaded the vessel for sailing Friday to the Far East. To Coast Guard boats, including the fireboat Sauk, the New York City fireboat John Harvey, 10 railroad tugboats and 13 fire companies joined in subduing the blaze.

Origin of the fire and amount of the damage were not immediately determined.

Japan Typhoon Kills 13

TOKYO (AP)—At least 13 persons were killed by a typhoon which swept southwestern Japan and the Japan Sea Tuesday, the Kyodo news agency reported today.

Romania Gets U.S. Protest On Arrests

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States protested sharply to the Romanian government today against the "arbitrary arrest without warrant or charge" of "hundreds" of opposition party members and others.

The note said the arrests appeared to represent "a deliberate effort at the suppression or terroristic intimidation of democratic elements" opposing the present Communist-dominated regime.

Those arrested, the note said, are being held "in prisons and concentration camps under reportedly deplorable conditions."

Iowans, Nebraskans Prepare For New Floods; Missouri Suffers

OMAHA, Neb. (AP)—Residents of Iowa and Nebraska primed themselves for new floods today, in the wake of widespread rain which came even before the old flood waters had run their downstream course.

The heaviest downpour was recorded in northeast Nebraska, where the rain measured four inches.

The precipitation meant more difficulties for flood-stricken towns engaged in reconstruction work.

At Cambridge, Neb., hardest hit in Sunday's deluge, Mayor Lloyd Richardson declared: "Our need is getting greater all the time. It is raining here again. It is not a hard rain, but adds to our misery."

Bank Manager Fires; Robbers Flee

NORWICH, Ont. (CP)—Three armed bandits were put to flight from the Bank of Montreal branch in this Ontario town, 15 miles south of Woodstock, today when manager William Colchester fired at them from his office.

2 Lumber Mills Burn

PORT HOOD, N.S. (CP)—Inverness County residents today counted losses of more than $50,000 caused Tuesday when a lumber mill burned to the ground and started a forest fire which spread rapidly inland, destroying a second lumber mill and ravaging large tracts of lumber over a nine-mile area.

Iowans, Nebraskans Prepare For New Floods; Missouri Suffers

Richardson said the entire flooded area of Cambridge might have to be evacuated again if the rains do not stop.

The body of a county supervisor, George Wieland of Carroll, Ia., was found in the Raccoon River near Auburn, Ia. He had been missing since Monday.

In Missouri, the fight continued to strengthen the levees against new crests coming down the Missouri River.

Ralph M. Aldrich, federal hydrologist at Kansas City, predicted a crest of 28 feet at Kansas City today.

In all three states, highway and rail traffic was on an if-and-when basis, with roads and rails washed out or covered with water.

Province To Pay Hospital Charges

The provincial government has agreed to pay $3 per day for all social assistance cases confined to hospitals which receive provincial grants, the social welfare committee, was informed today. Ald. Margaret D. Christie, chairman, said following a meeting. This sum will be in addition to the 70 cents per patient per day now paid on behalf of all hospital patients by the provincial government. "It will mean a considerable saving to the hospitals," Ald. Christie commented. "As in the past nothing more than 70 cents per day was paid on behalf of indigents, except in so far as it came from our annual hospital grant."

The committee also decided that only emergency cases would be housed in the accommodation provided at Songhees Camp, several buildings in which are being taken over by the city. The lands department will collect the rents, but the welfare department will decide who the tenants are to be.

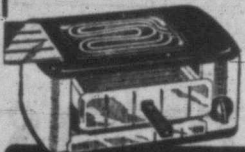

Flying Fort Crashes

MANILA (AP)—A Flying Fortress crashed into the sea today and a United States Army Air Force spokesman said five of eight crew members were missing. Three survivors were rescued by boat.

No More Restaurants

TOKYO (Reuters)—The Japanese cabinet today decided to close restaurants and eating houses throughout the country for six months because of the food shortage.

Former Lt. Gov. Of Ontario Dies

LATE HON. W. D. ROSS

TORONTO (CP) — Hon. William Donald Ross, a Nova Scotia farm boy who became one of the Dominion's leading bankers and served as Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario from 1927 to 1932, died today, aged 78.

He came of a family of Scottish Highland stock which played a leading role in Canadian political life both before and after Confederation.

He started his banking career as a lad of 15 with the Bank of Nova Scotia and quickly became manager at Stellarton and New Glasgow, N.S., and later at Charlottetown. His banking career was interrupted for a few years service as deputy minister of finance of Canada, a post he took up in 1901. He was a Liberal.

From government finance he returned to banking and directed the affairs of the Metropolitan Bank, Toronto, which was absorbed by the Bank of Nova Scotia in 1914. He continued on the board of the Bank of Nova Scotia as a director and devoted his energy to private financial enterprises.

Ross Munro Of C.P. Comes Back To Canada

SOUTHAMPTON, Eng. (CP) — Ross Munro today boarded the liner Aquitania en route home to Canada after almost seven years overseas as war and European correspondent for the Canadian Press.

During the war Munro earned a world-wide reputation when he scored world beats on four Allied landing operations — Dieppe, Sicily, Italy and Normandy — and since hostilities ended he has traveled 80,000 miles, visiting almost every European country.

Traveling with him is his wife, the former Ellen Marie Stevens of Dunville, Ont., former Canadian army physiotherapist, and their daughter, Ann.

2 Confess Beating, Abandoning Child

GRANTS PASS, Ore. (AP) — Police reported today that a man and woman had signed confessions that they beat, then abandoned little "Miss X," the blonde child found unconscious in a clump of bushes at Weed, Calif., June 15.

Police said the child, whose identity had been sought for 10 days, was Mary Jane Meddlin, 2½, of nearby Selma, Ore.

The girl's mother, Mrs. Lucille Meddlin, was said by police to have signed a confession that she had joined Hugh Gilreath, 25, sawmill worker, in beating the child severely June 14.

Gilreath signed a confession he had abandoned the girl in Weed the next day, police said, adding, however, that Gilreath denied he had participated in any severe beating. The girl was abandoned because "there were too many kids around," police quoted him.

Authorities have served a warrant on Gilreath charging assault with intent to kill.

Allow Yakima Protest

TACOMA (AP) — Yakima's protest of a Western International League game May 29 at Salem has been allowed by Robert B. Abel, president of the league, but only to the extent that a portion of the game and a small portion be replayed.

At some point during their July 18-21 series, the Yakima and Salem clubs will recreate a situation which led to an improper decision by the umpire, Yakima, with two runners aboard and two out in the ninth inning, will be given the opportunity to erase an 8 to 5 deficit.

North Ward—Graduation exercises were held at North Ward school with Dr. H. E. Green acting as chairman. Choral numbers were given by intermediate-grade choirs under leadership of Mrs. L. Briggs. Rev. W. R. Ashford gave the address to the graduating class and Teddy Yuen, the valedictory address. Sport badges were presented by Gordon Hartley to members of teams winning in their respective sections in junior boys' basketball, senior boys' basketball, junior and senior boys' softball, junior and senior girls' softball. Mrs. G. Harris, president, presented citizenship prizes to Barbara Mader, division one; Melvina Leask, division two; Peter Fong, division three; Archie Pauschak, division four; Joanne Wark, division five; Norman Calverley, division six and Helen Kerwate, division seven. Mrs. J. T. Ross presented Tom Chow with a prize for shooting. Refreshments were served to members of the graduating class and guests under the con- vnership of Mrs. J. McLeod.

Suspect Ringer As Trainers, Horses Draw Suspensions

HAMILTON (CP) — The charge that a "ringer" won a race at Woodbine Park and later ran fourth in a race at Long Branch today caused the Incorporated Canadian Racing Association to suspend two trainers and two horses.

Suspended trainers were Dr. R. K. Hodgson and Joseph Brazeau. The horses suspended from racing are the four-year-old Williegivt and the three-year-old Fifty-Seven, both fillies and both owned by N. L. Helse of Toronto.

In the first race at Woodbine May 20 Fifty-Seven won and paid $21.55 for a first-place ticket. The allegation is that the horse that won actually was Williegivt, racing with a field of three-year-olds.

It was also alleged that Williegivt ran under the name of Fifty-Seven in a race at Long Branch last Saturday, finishing fourth behind Moldy, the King's Plate winner, in another race for three-year-olds.

Peace River Man Given Three Years

PEACE RIVER, Alta. (CP) — Thomas Bouchard, 30, found guilty in the Alberta Supreme Court here Tuesday on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of his uncle, Louis Bouchard, last New Year's Eve, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary by Mr. Justice C. C. McLaurin.

The burned body of the uncle was found in the ruins of his farm home near Girouxville, south of here, after fire had destroyed the dwelling. No charges were made in connection with the death of Annie Worotniak, 23, Louis Bouchard's housekeeper, whose charred body was also found in the debris.

Found In Icebox

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Four-year-old Marcello (Butch) Basco, missing since late Monday, was found alive Tuesday in an old ice-box at the rear of his home, where he had hidden from playmates.

The tired and hungry boy, shut in the box for 18 hours, was treated in hospital for exhaustion, cuts and bruises suffered in attempts to free himself.

"I cried and cried for you, daddy," he sobbed at the hospital to his father, John Basco.

Recover 11 Bodies

KIRKLAND LAKE, Ont. (CP)—Bodies of 11 miners who lost their lives in a fire two months ago in the East Malartic Gold Mine at Malartic in northwestern Quebec have been found, it was reported here today.

The temperature of the sun on its surface has been estimated at about 10,000 degrees Fahrenheit.

Mr. MacDonald was the first small town pastor elected as moderator in 18 years.

U.N. Charter Second Anniversary Will Be Celebrated Tomorrow

LAKE SUCCESS (AP)—Two years that have changed the world will end tomorrow, second anniversary of the signing of the United Nations' charter.

Since the days shortly before and after the charter was signed in San Francisco the world has seen:

1. The defeat of Germany and Japan.
2. A start on the road to out-law war.

Last-minute preparations were made by U.N. officials here today for observing charter day throughout the world.

At noon tomorrow, the 2,600 members of the U.N. secretariat headquarters staff will assemble in front of the administration building for a solemn ceremony marking the charter signing. Short addresses will be made by Secretary-General Trygve Lie and Assistant Secretary-General Byron Price.

The U.N. radio division will broadcast a half-hour program in the five official languages, including recorded messages from President Truman, Premier Ramadier of France, Prime Minister Attlee of Britain, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek of China, and Deputy Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko of Russia.

Premier Stalin was invited to participate but declined.

In addition to this main program the U.N. radio division has prepared a transcription program in 21 languages for broadcast in 54 countries.

This program includes a message from Mr. Lie, a reading of the preamble to the charter by John Gielgud, the British actor, and statements from each of the Big Five delegates, recorded at the time the charter was signed in San Francisco.

Picking Up 'Empties' Raises Legal Point

OTTAWA (CP)—An irate and ruffled man identifying himself only as John Q. Citizen was outwitted by numbers but managed to raise a nice legal point as to the ownership of pop bottles, discarded in public places.

The question arose Tuesday as employees of the catering concession at the Marian Congress were gathering up mountains of "empties" left around the grounds of Lansdowne Park during the five-day religious festival. They objected when John Q. drove up in his car and began to load up with all the pop bottles he could lay his hands on. Police politely took away his bottles.

The bottles of pop, John Q. argued, had been sold outright giving the customer the right to his bottle as well as the pop it contained. When the customer threw his bottle away, it became a "finders-keepers" affair.

"I'd like to see the case in court," said a local lawyer.

Whitehorse-Brussels Trip Sets Record

MONTREAL — Believed to be establishing an all-time record for distance traveled by Canadian army personnel going on leave, Capt. Joseph A. Renaud, assistant paymaster of the Northwest Highway System Headquarters in Whitehorse, Y.T., is now en route to London, England, and Brussels, Belgium, for his annual 30-day leave period.

Friends, made during his four-year stay in the United Kingdom during war years and during his two and one-half year tour of duty on the continent of Europe, are in for a surprise when Capt. Renaud drops in for tea unannounced. He was repatriated from Canadian occupation duties about 10 months ago and since then had not hinted a return visit in his letters overseas.

To start the 7,000-mile flight, the paymaster left Whitehorse at 6 a.m. June 20 on an R.C.A.F. scheduled flight to Edmonton and after a few days stop-over, continued his R.C.A.F. flight east to the Dorval Airport, Montreal, last Monday. After arriving in Montreal during the morning hours of the following day, he booked out for a T.C.A. overseas flight, and left at 10 a.m. today.

After about 40 hours flying time from the Yukon headquarters, Capt. Renaud expects to make his first phone call to friends in London.

"Tony" Renaud is due to leave England on the return flight one month after his arrival.

Aid-Europe Plan Must Not Bring Interference—Pravda

LONDON (AP)—Pravda, the Communist newspaper in Moscow, said today that no self-respecting European nation could accept the Marshall aid-Europe proposals if acceptance meant United States interference in their internal affairs.

In the first Soviet comment on the European economic reconstruction program since Russia agreed to discuss it with Britain and France in Paris Friday, the newspaper declared in an article broadcast by the Moscow radio:

"If the authors of this plan listened to the counsels of some excessively meddling American reactionaries and put forward for European countries conditions copied from the Greek-Turkish model, then it stands to reason that the putting forward of these conditions would deliberately aim at eventual failure of the program planned."

"Such aid would mean in fact interference in the internal affairs of European states as an infringement of their sovereignty, with which not a single European nation which respects itself could agree."

French press dispatches Tuesday night said Foreign Minister Molotov was scheduled to leave tomorrow for the three-power talks beginning Friday in Paris.

British informants expressed belief the Paris conference would open with a general discussion of the U.S. proposal to be followed by a broad discussion of the current economic situation and imperative needs. After that it was hoped to get on with the job of arranging for participation by other European countries, the appointment of committees of experts and collection of detailed information.

Predicts Alberta Will Return Liberals

EDMONTON (CP)—Alberta voters, at the first opportunity, will return the Liberal Party to power in the province, Trade Minister MacKinnon told the provincial Liberal convention here Tuesday.

He said the new Liberal leader to be chosen by the convention today would head the next Alberta government.

The Liberals had a great pioneering tradition in Alberta, he said. It was a tradition of aggressive leadership and constructive action.

"Alberta Liberalism always has stood for advanced social reforms and sane, practical fiscal policies. It means working in intelligent co-operation with the rest of Canada."

"I am satisfied the day is not far distant when the people will once again place the Liberal Party in power. They will turn to liberalism again as the best method of securing alert, aggressive administration."

Victoria Physician Wins In Photography

WINNIPEG (CP)—Dr. J. S. Cull of Victoria won first award of merit for monochrome photography in the Canadian Physicians' Art and Camera Salon being held here in conjunction with the Canadian Medical Association's annual convention.

Dr. H. F. P. Grafton of Kamloops, B.C., won the second award of merit and Dr. J. E. C. Morton of Brandon, Man., took first prize for kodachrome transparencies.

Cities Make War On 480,000 Rats

VANCOUVER (CP)—A "call to arms" was sounded in Vancouver and New Westminster today for a fight to the finish against an estimated horde of 480,000 rats in the twin cities.

Morven Ewan, New Westminster health inspector, urged business men and citizens to approve a program, with a tentative five-year cost of $5,000, designed to control the rat menace.

In Vancouver, Frank L. Beebe, manager of the Stanley Park zoo, urged total war against the teeming rat population as a "long overdue" measure to safeguard city health. Their presence was a constant bubonic plague threat. Mr. Beebe, a former pest control employee of the provincial government, estimated there were as many rats in Greater Vancouver as there were men, women and children.

BRUSSELS (Reuters)—Seventeen persons, including seven women, were killed and 16 injured as employees leaped from the fifth-story windows of the Belgian Ministry of Education when fire broke out in the building Tuesday.

No Snowplows On Passenger Trains

OTTAWA (CP)—The Board of Transport Commissioners announced today issuance of an order forbidding the use of snowplows attached to engines which haul passenger trains.

Submissions on the matter were filed by the Railway Association of Canada, the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the Order of Railway Conductors of America, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen and the Temiscouata Railway Company.

STILL GOING STRONG

TWO YEARS AGO TODAY DOWN IN San Francisco the envoys of nearly half a hundred countries affixed their signatures to a document whose content represented nine weeks of solemn and conscientious labor. Its official title was: "Text of the Proposed Charter of the United Nations, Including the Statute of the International Court of Justice." Mr. Mackenzie King and Mr. Louis St. Laurent signed for the Dominion of Canada.

It is fitting that this anniversary should be marked by special observances. Such are essential if only to remind the skeptics with whom one rubbed shoulders during the days of the conference in the city by the Golden Gate that this second effort to preserve international peace has not failed. They will tell us that the latest experiment has not been a howling success to date. Few expected the new Charter for mankind to produce the Millennium. Some people with immature minds and little imagination may still prefer to try to solve a bridge problem rather than devote a little time to the consideration of the part the average individual can play in the promotion of a sound public opinion for the guidance of governments. For it is governments, not the "little people" of the world, that frame policies upon which peace or war depends. But it is the "little people" who suffer and pay. They felt secure for a year or so after the First Great War. They had paid a stiff price for the premium on their Nations Insurance policy. It ran from 1919 to 1939. Payments then began on a new one. How much they have amounted to will never be known. The actuaries of the dim and distant future may try to arrive at a figure. It will be inconclusive.

At this stage of the world's progress, of course, little purpose can be served by crying over what might have been. The peoples of this planet are faced with stern realities. It is largely their responsibility to make sure that their insurance policy as represented by the Charter of the United Nations is a sound investment. Only the foolish will argue that its provisions are merely a collection of pious hopes. The men and women who labored long and earnestly in San Francisco were imbued with the highest practical motives. Of course differences of opinion developed as the interminable discussions droned on, as the conferees of multiple commissions and committees thrust and parried, as ideological controversies at times seemed to be more the rule than the exception; but at the end of it all—a short nine weeks—one of the most momentous resolves emerged.

On this second anniversary of the signing of that historic document, therefore, it is well to recall that nearly half a hundred nations solemnly pledged themselves "to establish conditions under which justice and respect for the obligations arising from treaties and other sources of international law" could be adhered to; that "international peace and security" could be maintained; and that they would practice tolerance and live together in peace with one another as good neighbors. These are some of the basic aims for all to mark well. In other words, if the organization born at San Francisco has not achieved spectacular triumphs so far, it certainly is no failure. The peoples of the world have it within their power to make it the success for which the architects of the Charter strove and hoped.

BETTER KNOWN

UNTIL THE RECENT WAR BROUGHT servicemen from all parts of the Dominion into intimate touch with Newfoundland, the big island which lies like a half-drawn stopper in the mouth of the St. Lawrence was but indifferently known to the majority of Canadians. During those years, however, when our forces were stationed there, or made the colony's ports headquarters for convoy and other work, citizens from widespread parts of the different provinces gained some appreciation of the difficulties, as well as hopes and aspirations, of the Newfoundlanders. This new knowledge will lend particular interest to current inquiries by the Newfoundland delegation regarding the feasibility or desirability of seeking entry into Confederation. The decision, of course, must rest with the islanders. Yet the addition of another member to the Canadian family would not be made without mature consideration on the part of this nation's representatives and people.

Strategically, the position of Newfoundland is widely recognized. Both for defence and for commerce its unique geographic position is imposing. At first view that appears the most appealing asset the island could offer the Dominion. But despite the economic vicissitudes through which it has passed, it is not without substantial resources. Its fishing industry, its broadening pulp and paper potentialities, its mineral deposits, as well as those in Labrador, command attention. Application of social services on a Canadian scale would unquestionably bring substantial benefits to the people and the introduction of a Canadian outlook, with its increasing faith in the future, might do much to assist the Newfoundlanders to achieve a greater destiny. What may be the outcome of current investigations into terms for entry into Confederation can only be speculative at this time. But the progress that is being made will probably be of much more significance to the present generation in Canada than to any of its predecessors. A greater number of our citizens than ever before now have personal knowledge of Newfoundland and will be in a superior position to determine the merits of any arrangement which may be suggested.

A NEW LINK

THE INAUGURAL VOYAGE TOMORROW of the Mv. Chinook, the recently-completed flagship of the Puget Sound Navigation Company, will mark a new and speedy connection between this city and the nearby United States ports of Seattle and Port Angeles. Although Victoria will continue to be ably served by other established facilities, the increasing importance of the tourist traffic, both afoot and in automobiles, has led the Black Ball Line to put this new vessel into operation. Air-conditioned staterooms, ship-to-shore telephone communication, radar equipment, sheltered promenades and other modern features ensure that the new ferry will be a popular one among residents as well as visitors to this city.

To the streamlined, 300-foot ship, soon to be a familiar sight to Victorians, will go the best wishes of this community, for she represents not only a concrete recognition of our growing importance to the tourist map, but a tangible means of fostering the intercommunication and friendship which so happily are a feature of Canadian-American relations on this continent.

NOT CENTRED YET

THE ENACTMENT BY CONGRESS OF the Taft-Hartley legislation to curb the powers of labor unions was to be expected as a consequence of the paralyzing hold which the workers' organizations had recently exerted on industry and commerce in the United States. The shutdown of activity in such vital services as coal mining, freight handling, telephone communications, and the obvious concentration of power in the hands of a select few union leaders inevitably spurred management to retaliate with protective measures. This prompted the present legislation.

By its very nature and origin, however, the new law tended to severities which would not otherwise have been incorporated. The main features of the act—blocking of "national paralysis" strikes, union liability for unfair labor practices, prohibition of jurisdictional strikes, and similar provisions—will find few objectors among the general public. But there are certain features of the legislation which place on employers the responsibility for strict fairness and impartiality in the implementation of the law. It is optimistic to hope that they would so act in all cases. Here and there pressure by management would result in a further show of strength by labor and the cause of industrial peace—to say nothing of the needs of the consumer—would have been poorly served. It was this view that President Truman had in mind when he observed that there were factors in the legislation which moved it in "the direction of a totally managed economy," and which contained "seeds of discord which would plague this nation for years to come."

The immediate response of labor has been along the anticipated lines. Wildcat strikes in at least three industrial fields have answered the passing of the act over President Truman's veto. It also may be expected that a prolonged period of labor unrest and protest will terminate only, if at all, when the courts have ruled on the legality and application of the varied phases of the measure. The ultimate version of the legislation will be somewhere to the right of unbridled labor union powers and to the left of the more severe of the restrictions in the present act. By the time that point is reached, both management and labor should have come to the realization that a co-operative and progressive attitude on the part of each in approaching mutual problems will do more than any formalized enactment to insure industrial labor harmony.

ENDLESS WARFARE

THE SERIOUS MENACE OF THE LARGE rat population in Vancouver and New Westminster has led Manager Frank L. Beebe of the Stanley Park Zoo to estimate that there are as many rats in Greater Vancouver as there are men, women and children. Victoria officials have given assurance that the situation is normal in this city and that there has been no indication that the number of these nasty rodents is increasing. A continuous campaign is conducted by a full-time rat-catcher, with special attention to wharves, dumps and other areas in which the pests flourish.

There should be little need to emphasize the terrific toll taken yearly by rats, whose depredations on a country-wide basis result in the loss of untold dollars worth of food and other material. Apart from the financial aspect, there is the ever-present danger, now being stressed in Vancouver, that the rodents may bring on an epidemic of bubonic plague. Fortunately, Victoria is well situated in this regard, but there should be no let-up in man's unrelenting battle against such pests.

Freedom Of Minds

"Historically, no institutions have been more jealous of freedom than universities, and if we are to carry on and serve the modern world we must have freedom . . . not only to investigate scientific problems confronting industry but freedom to study and investigate the society we live in . . . There should be freedom also to express opinions on the results of such studies."—Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie, President of the University of British Columbia.

IN THE EXPERIMENTAL laboratory, the student subjects certain matter to certain influences under certain conditions and achieves certain results. From these he draws certain conclusions. Because, in his earlier essays at proof through experimentation, he finds given causes having given effects—and he is merely repeating the performance done countless times before by men who have conducted almost endless experiments under almost identical conditions—he accepts the principles they have established from their observations. He is satisfied, too, with the outcome of his test. When he drops hydrochloric acid on zinc he expects to release hydrogen and his analysis of the freed gas convinces him that such a reaction follows.

AT A MUCH HIGHER stage of his development, he will pursue research into fields of the unknown. He will test his own theories, or those of his fellows, in the laboratory and can depend only on scientific anticipation of a certain reaction to indicate the results of his experiment. With some elements, these journeys into the unknown are hazardous. His previous experience and the caution he has learned protect him to a large degree from possibly harmful outcomes.

This, in crude form, is the story of the student who pursues his studies in the laboratory. From his work come boons to mankind. By his action are pushed back the curtains that hide the unexplored.

HE IS, HOWEVER, but one type of individual at University. Others deal with the less concrete elements of thought, experiment with ideas, develop techniques of achieving conclusions. And they, too, marrying the experience of the past to the probabilities of the future, help to dispel the mists of ignorance.

It is right and proper that these students should be given the liberty to follow their lines of experimentation in the realms of the concrete and of the abstract. They must, perforce, exercise some caution in the courses they pursue. But unless they are permitted to reach out into the unknown, they can make little contribution to the higher concepts of education. They cannot assist in the blazing of trails which others may follow in the constant expansion of knowledge.

THERE WILL BE misgivings on the part of those who tread a different path from that which the student seeks to take. And if the student declaims loudly, as young students often do, on one particular aspect of his reading, there may be an inclination to fix him with some label—a red if his declamations follow a certain line, a fascist if they follow another. But this tendency to vociferate on the part of young people who have just grasped a concept new to them is merely a phrase. It is an elaboration of but one part of the store of knowledge which eventually will bring to them a wider understanding of their subjects. If it seems inflammatory, it may, in most cases, be placed in a category analogous to that of the ingredients with which a laboratory man conducts his experiments. And as the technician learns respect for the attributes of his elements, so, too, eventually will the experimenter in different ideas learn to apply to each the degree of circumspection each requires. To deny the latter the right to probe them and to expound them would be to limit the substances with which he works.

NOR NEED IT BE assumed because youth falls readily under the sway of some dynamic line of thought that the influence of that particular line will be abiding as he proceeds to enlarge his outlook. If, however, the student is restrained from studying a theory, and inadequate reason is given for the restraint placed upon him, his resentment may twist his development—may lead to the overemphasis from which abiding distortions grow.

If an idea is good and strong, it will be of value to his development. If it is wrong and weak, its defects will be revealed by discussion and study. Freedom to pursue debate in the assemblies and in the common rooms will point up the merits or deficiencies of the cases that are propounded. The inexperienced in the laboratory may treat clumsily the equipment with which he works. The inexperienced in the realms of ideas may deal roughly with the accepted concepts he has not yet learned to handle. But as the former gains proficiency with his physical tools, so, also, does the latter learn to respect the principles with which he comes into contact. By testing, both determine the values of the respective materials they study.

SHOULD THE INSTITUTIONS of higher learning become so circumscribed that the exploring minds of students were confronted with arbitrary barriers, then the purpose of education would be restricted. Knowledge would be confined and the possibilities of expanded thought would be curtailed.

"Historically, no institutions have been more jealous of freedom than universities, and if we are to carry on and serve the modern world we must have freedom."—A.H.S.

Wrong Way To Teach An Old Dog New Tricks

Horse-and-Buggy Defence

PEACETIME conscription—particularly the six-months universal training plan now advocated in the United States—is a horse-and-buggy military policy in an atomic and missile age," declares Hanson W. Baldwin, in an exclusive article in The Reader's Digest for July.

Millions of partly trained men, put into uniform on any future mobilization day, would be helpless to defend cities from the probable atomic attack of a new war, Baldwin contends. "What is worse, he adds, the adoption of such a plan will handicap the development of a realistic military policy. The cost of peacetime conscription in the United States, estimated at three to five billion dollars a year, would divert funds from far more important military requirements. The energies of 150,000 men of the regular army would have to be devoted exclusively to the basic training of mass reserves.

Conceding that preparedness is today more important than ever, Baldwin holds that true preparedness does not rest in a large drafted army. Prior to the U.S. entry into World War II, the draft had been in effect for more than a year, he points out. But, except at Bataan, United States first divisions did not get into action until almost a year after Japan attacked.

Baldwin sees the "first line of defense against war" in a sound foreign policy. Next in importance is a "global intelligence service, able to give us warning of political crisis." Other factors of genuine preparedness are "a research and development plan superior to any," and "an industrial mobilization plan calculated to make quick use of industrial superiority."

The many men who will be needed for disaster-control and home front duties, in event of atomic attack, should be supplied by the National Guard, or by "specially created state forces, federally directed."

Objections to peacetime conscription, on other than military grounds, are cited. It is undemocratic, Baldwin insists, "despite the fact that it has been described as a symbol of democracy." Internationally, it has never tended to promote understanding and peace. "While we strive for world peace through U.N., our conscription of a large army could have only warlike implications abroad and would be a 'backward step in international politics.'"

Finally, Baldwin says, Russia—"the only other great protagonist in the drama of the world today"—does not fear mass armies and would not be impressed by U.S. adoption of universal military training.

INFORMATION NEEDED

I am writing this to ask the aid of some of your readers in locating a few nests of songbirds for photography.

We expect a visit from Mr. C. A. Harwell, western representative of the National Audubon Society, who is coming to Victoria shortly to take motion pictures for a nature film featuring birds of this area. He wishes nests of common songbirds and also a nest and young of the hummingbird.

Anyone knowing the location of reasonably accessible nests with young would render us a favor by phoning such information to this office.

NIGHT PARKING

At school we were taught that "Consistency is a virtue," which phrase comes to mind after perusing a communication received at this hotel, from the Secretary, Board of Police Commissioners, who requests co-operation in getting visitors' cars off the streets during the hours of 2 a.m. to 6:30 a.m.

While everyone must agree that this is very desirable, it is pointed out that the Windermere has its own parking lot, adjoining the hotel, which is made full use of by its patrons.

Where it would appear that the Police Commission is somewhat inconsistent in its request is, that no effort seems to be made to get the large transportation companies to remove their buses off the streets, which, during the night hours, use the areas contiguous to their depots, not only for parking purposes, but also to test out their engines, making it almost impossible for hotel guests to sleep.

It is therefore respectfully suggested that the commission, when giving consideration to night parking on the streets, should check on the owners of the large vehicles as well as the small ones.

THOSE POLISH GIRLS

To those people and organizations, especially labor unions, that have voiced objection to Dr. Dionne's action in bringing in 100 Polish girls to work in his factory, I would like to pose this question—"What have they done to relieve the unhappy lot of the D.P.'s in Europe?"

I think Mr. Dionne has done a Christian and patriotic act. Christian, because he has rescued 100 girls from the depressing misery of D.P. camps and given them the opportunity to become useful citizens of our most favored Canada. Patriotic, because he has added 100 citizens who are sure to prove good ones, because the reason for their being D.P.'s is they have refused to live under the totalitarian tyranny which now rules their native Poland. They are of the same stuff as the Pilgrim

Fathers, who left England rather than live under the milder tyranny of James I.

Naturally, Mr. Dionne had to have a contract with them, as to bring them out must have cost him quite $500 each; and he is not making them pay this back.

SUPPORT BY-LAW

For four years and more, we have had the privilege of representing Spanish as Trustees on the School Board.

The growth of our Municipality during the past 10 years has made it imperative to have more accommodation for the pupil increase. New schools and additions to existing buildings are necessary in almost all the wards.

The by-law on Saturday, June 28, will, we trust, be supported by the electorate.

Excellent sites now available may not always be procurable. A grant of fifty per cent from the provincial government to cover new construction and equipment is now proffered, and the entire program will react to the benefit of labor and industry and subsequently reduce the heavy transportation costs now paid to carry pupils to distant schools.

Through you, sir, we ask Spanish voters to support the by-law on Saturday by voting "Yes."

DOMESTIC PRESTIGE

Australian News
A woman in the home is doing one of the most difficult and necessary jobs in the world in the opinion of the president of the Housewives' Progressive Association. She suggests that the term, "home trainee," should be used for young girls just beginning a domestic career and "home associates" for more experienced workers. Older women might be called "home aids."

COURTESY AT HOME

Edmonton Bulletin
Maybe if everybody starts being courteous to the stranger in town we may get the habit and recover our normal politeness toward home folks, the regular customers, the neighbors. That, too, will pay in the long run, in cash, and in some other things that money can't buy and is no substitute for.

DAY CARE

Washington Post
The day-care centre program meets an urgent need of working mothers by providing places where their preschool age children can play and learn during the hours when the mothers are necessarily absent from home. Without these centres, the mothers would be obliged to give up their jobs. The program, inaugurated during the war under federal auspices, thoroughly deserves continuance, we think, as an appropriate and useful community service.

INCOMES AND INSTEPS

London (Ont.) Free Press
Down in Toronto a veteran salesman who has been fitting shoes on the human foot for many years declares that the "long last" shoes are sold almost exclusively to the "big wigs." On which fact he bases his assertion that long, narrow feet and wealth and position are related. The "long last," he says, is known in the trade as "the banker's last." Incidentally, there is a scarcity of "long last" footwear. Thin, narrow feet and thick, fat pocketbooks seem to go together.

WHY RED SERGE?

R.C.M.P. Quarterly
The adoption of that most striking detail in the force's uniform, the "red serge," was not a piece of empty swagger, nor was it merely another expression of the strong British sentiment in this country. It resulted from sound diplomatic forethought. To trace the reason to its origin one must turn the clock back to the frontier days of the West, to when a rifle regiment garbed in green replaced a red-coated regiment at Fort Garry. Perhaps further than that, for the British military scarlet, worn as long ago as 300 years, came to this continent about the beginning of the 18th century.

In an age when many white men subscribed to the barbarous doctrine that "The only good Indian is a dead one," the Indian came to realize that in the eyes of the soldiers of the Great White Mother (Queen Victoria) the life of every redskin was as sacred as that of any pale-face. By experience he knew that justice and fair dealing could always be expected from the redcoats.

Women's Pay

From The Times of London
As a broad affirmation of principle, according to the Chancellor of the Exchequer, the government accept for their own employees the justice of the claim that men and women should receive the same payment for the same work. But he firmly refused, on behalf of the government, to introduce equal pay at present for civil servants, teachers and other employees of national and local authorities. In thus disregarding the resolution on equal pay adopted by the recent Labor Party conference the government have taken a difficult but undoubtedly right decision. Mr. Dalton's critics have refused to face the elementary fact that in present circumstances, with a great program of reformed social services still to be brought into operation and paid for, "some limit must be set to the rate at which new expenditure can be undertaken."

This applies as much to the wages of builders as to the salaries of women civil servants. The raising of women's rates to the level of men's in the civil service, in teaching and other local government employments would be almost unproductive. It would add nothing to the real national output of goods and services, but certainly something to their cost; if it attracted more women into public employment it would attract them chiefly to the wrong places.

Canada To Provide $20,000,000 For Relief To Europe

OTTAWA (CP)—Prime Minister King announced in the Commons Tuesday plans to recommend an appropriation of $20,000,000 for post-Unrra relief in Europe.

Of that amount, $5,000,000 will go to an international children's relief fund organized by the United Nations, and the remainder will be used to provide relief in certain specified countries.

Mr. King's announcement was followed by another in which Fisheries Minister Bridges disclosed that $8,000,000 of the appropriation would be used for the purchase of canned and salted fish and fish products in Canada.

Mr. King said the United Nations had reported there was danger of serious hardship and actual starvation in many countries next fall, particularly before European harvests, and had estimated that $383,000,000 of assistance would be needed.

The United States Congress already had voted $350,000,000, including $40,000,000 for the children's fund, while other countries also had taken steps to provide assistance.

John Bracken, Progressive Conservative leader, said he was sure the Canadian people would welcome Mr. King's announcement.

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said he was pleased to know something was to be done for the relief of the peoples of Curiosity almost killed this boy—Robert Tome, right, of Milwaukee—when he was trapped in an abandoned icebox for 22 hours. Europe, but he felt the Dominion could do more.

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, said the relief measure was "very timely."

The Fisheries Minister told the House the government was ready to proclaim the Fisheries Prices Support Act of 1944 and to establish a five-man board to buy and sell fish and to prescribe prices in a support program related to an effort to expand the domestic market.

The government in the next fiscal year would be prepared to buy, at prices to be determined, up to 10,000,000 pounds of dried salted cod and related species, up to 40,000 barrels of pickled fish, up to 50,000 boxes of bloaters, up to 900,000 cases of west coast canned herring and up to 100,000 cases of eastern canned fish, the latter being in addition to the current purchases being made in the east by Unrra.

It was also hoped quantities of cod and related species could be diverted from the frozen outlet into the canned form.

South African XI Staging Comeback Against England

LONDON (Reuter)—South Africa had 120 second-inning runs for the loss of two wickets at the end of Tuesday's play against England in the second test match of the season.

The South Africans collapsed in the first innings and went out for 327 runs, 227 behind England's first innings total of 554 for eight wickets declared.

Forced to follow on, the South Africans had slow going in the final stages of the third day of the four-day match at Lords.

Captain Alan Melville of South Africa scored a century and became the first cricketer to get four successive centuries in test play against England.

Melville batted 4½ hours and hit 13 fours. He had scored 159 and 104 not out in the first test of the present series at Nottingham two weeks ago, and his other century was made in the fifth test at Durban in 1939.

The first match ended in a draw.

The only other player to make four successive test centuries is the Australian, Jack Fingleton, who 11 years ago scored three in South Africa and one in Australia.

Melville and A. D. Nourse added 118 for the third wicket. Nourse was out eight runs after his captain, having scored 61, including 6 fours, in two hours and 40 minutes.

Leader Of Allied Armies In Europe To Head University

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, Army Chief of Staff, today accepted the Presidency of Columbia University. He will take office effective next year.

Eisenhower's decision was disclosed in a statement by Maj. Gen. Floyd L. Parks, chief of the War Department's public relations division. It said:

To drop sword . . . GEN. EISENHOWER

"With the approval of the President of the United States and Secretary of War, Gen. Eisenhower has today accepted the Presidency of Columbia University, to become effective at such time as his superiors may release him from active duty in the army.

"While this date cannot be accurately foreseen, it is probably that with no radical change in the current outlook it should be sometime during the first half of 1948."

Hopes For Record With Model T

Wonder what became of the model T? Well, Frank Hocévar of Chicago is out to prove it's as dependable as ever. Here he is pictured with his 1927 model T Ford in New York City prior to his cross-country takeoff in an attempt to break the record of five days, two hours and 13 minutes set by Cannonball Baker in 1926. Hocévar plans only one stop during the trip to San Francisco.

C.P.R. President Tells Of Increased Costs Of Railways

railways cannot be expected to continue to provide the Canadian people with the quality of service they expect and to which they are entitled on revenues based on economic conditions prevalent in 1922, W. M. Neal, chairman and president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, emphasized here Monday evening at the conclusion of a comprehensive tour of the company's properties and services in New Brunswick and Nova Scotia, during which he was accompanied by four of the directors of the company and others.

"The position of the railways is distinctly comparable to that of any other industry providing and selling goods and services," he said. "Increased maintenance and operating costs can only be met by increased revenues and the Canadian Pacific Railway, faced with drastic advances in material and labor costs, can only secure the money to maintain its services in keeping with the importance and growth of the nation through increases in its charges through increases in other industries using its services.

He said much had been made of the statement that the requested 30 per cent increase in freight rates would cost the Canadian public $87,000,000 a year, but he stated advances in material costs and wages since 1939 were costing the Canadian Pacific Railway Company alone $70,000,000 a year.

REFRIGERATOR CARS

Mr. Neal discussed the development of refrigerator cars as an illustration. These cars presently cost the railway approximately $11,000 each, but permitted shippers of perishable foods greatly to expand their markets. The financial situation had made it necessary to cut in half original plans to build 500 of these cars during the current year.

Box cars which formerly cost the company $1,200 now cost more than $5,000 each.

In endeavoring to meet the situation the Canadian Pacific Railway was studying and developing features in transportation such as the diesel locomotive, of which a large switching fleet was already in operation, covered hopper cars for the handling of bulk products and many other technological factors calculated to provide the Canadian people with improved services at the lowest possible rates.

No 'Shooting War' By U.S.-Russia Yet Says Glacier Priest

CHICO, Calif. (AP)—Conflict between the United States and Russia will not go beyond the name calling stage, believes Father Bernard Hubbard, "Glacier Priest" and world traveler.

Father Hubbard, resting here at the home of a brother after a seven-month world tour, said in a copyrighted interview with the Chico Record that he felt Russia had neither the "know-how" nor the physical facilities for waging war.

The priest, head of the geology department of Santa Clara University, demonstrated the Soviet "lack of know-how" by declaring he learned a year ago the Russians had built an atomic energy plant and then had it blow up on them, killing several scientists and devastating a wide area.

He said the plant was about 50 miles from Moscow, but would identify it no more definitely. He added, however, that "the source of my information is authoritative."

"One of the professors evidently forgot a decimal point and the Soviet atom factory and all those scientists blew up."

Another instance of Russian lack of "know-how," he said was their leaving behind essential parts in stripping factories in Germany and Manchuria.

It's Not Bubble Gum If Junior Gets Sick

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bubble gum isn't to blame for junior's upset stomach or for any other of his pains, except maybe aching jaws, the food and drug administration said Tuesday.

The results of tests "do not warrant any conclusion that bubble gum contains toxic ingredients," the agency said.

The bubble gum tests followed reports from some areas that children were possibly being made ill by chewing it. This the agency found incorrect. In fact, it found bubble gum no more harmful than pure paraffin wax.

It May Be Fun, But It's Likely To Be Fatal—So DON'T Do It!

Recently four young people, row-boating near Detroit, Mich., sought a thrill by riding in the tumbling wake of an excursion steamer. Result: three drowned when rowboat capsized. Every summer death takes his toll of the foolhardy who flout common-sense safety rules. Here are some pictorial don'ts to remember if you go boating and want to return safely: Fire is doubly dangerous on a boat. Cigarettes and highly volatile gasoline don't mix—safely. Boat-rocking has been talked about so much it's trite—but it's still the chief cause of boat accidents. Show-offs who enjoy plaudits of friends may enjoy the pulmotor less. Pleasant is the cooling breeze whizzing by when you sit on the bow of a fast-moving speedboat. Unpleasant is the fall that often follows. Small boys should stay out of boats unless accompanied by adults. Boys in picture may retrieve their paddles or they may get a dunking—if nothing worse.

Pension Bill Again Criticized; Federal Labor Code Act Approved

OTTAWA (CP)—Debate in the Commons Tuesday swung back to old age pensions, with renewed criticism of federal proposals for a $5 monthly increase to $30, after an excursion into the international realm and the United Nations. The pension debate developed hoist—tantamount to killing it. The legislation then was read a third time.

BRING UP HUXLEY'S NAME

In the course of debate on the bill a wrangle swirled about the stolid figure of Norman Jaques, S.C., Wetaskiwin, Alta., who with eight other Social Credit members, Mr. Church and J. F. Pouliot, Ind.-Lib., Temiscouata, Que., made up the opposition.

Previous remarks of the Prime Minister and Fred Rose, then member for Montreal-Cartier, were rolled out as Mr. Jaques and Mr. Maurice Hartt, Lib., Rose's successor, met in a clash arising out of Mr. Jaques' statement that Julian Huxley, chairman of the U.N.'s Economic, Scientific and Cultural Organization was a "professed atheist."

One among a number of interrupters, Mr. Hartt observed that Mr. Jaques "wants to teach God Almighty His business."

Someone interjected: He recognizes Him anyhow.

Mr. Hartt: He would not know Him if he saw Him and he would not see Him if he knew Him.

Mr. Jaques said he had encountered the same sort of objections from Rose, former Labor-Progressive member for the Cartier seat who now is serving six years for Russian espionage activities.

Mr. Hartt: It may not be long before my friend is with Fred Rose.

Mr. Jaques quoted the Prime Minister as saying: "Our existence as a nation depends upon the preservation of Christian principles." But when "I said that a month ago I was denounced as a menace."

Mr. Hartt interjected: "But you did not say that" and Mr. Jaques challenged him to dispute what the Prime Minister had said.

Mr. Pouliot observed that "this is like a meeting of the Big Five" as the Speaker and other members debated whether Mr. Jaques had waived his right to continue by his challenge. The Speaker finally directed him to continue.

LABOR MEASURE

The principle of the government's legislation for a new federal labor code was approved by the House and the bill itself sent to the industrial-relations committee for detailed study after mild criticism had been expressed from the Opposition benches.

The measure was given second reading following brief debate in which Angus MacInnis, C.C.F., Vancouver East, held that its fundamental fault was "restricted coverage" of the labor field and said it could "by no stretch of imagination" be called a labor code.

Rodney Adamson, P.C., York West, Ont., felt the bill conflicted in some respects with provincial jurisdiction and said it should have been placed before the House earlier.

Approval of the legislation came from Rev. Dan McIvor, Lib., Fort William, who felt it would be fair to both labor and management.

Final approval also was given a bill amending the Juvenile Delinquents Act to allow parents of delinquents to appeal from decisions handed down by magistrates.

Prime Minister King and

Fisheries Minister Bridges joined in announcing that Canada will provide $20,000,000, of which $8,000,000 will be used for purchases of canned and salted fish in Canada, for post-Unrra relief in Europe.

Mr. King also promised to consider the question of arranging for the shipment of Canadian apples to Britain on terms similar to those under which Canadian fish was to be exported to Europe.

Memorial Scholarship—Camosun Chapter, I.O.D.E., presented its memorial scholarship for the second time at a recent meeting. This year, Craigflower School was chosen and Miss Shirley Carmichael, aged 13, the winner. Mrs. F. D. McKechnie, educational secretary, made the presentation before assembled pupils of the school on the lawn on the banks of the Gorge. Mrs. A. Mainprize, regent, spoke briefly, reminding the audience the scholarship is given each year to an eighth grade pupil, son or daughter of a veteran of World War I or II, and is to be used to further the recipient's high school education.

Garden Party—Mr. and Mrs. T. Kilpatrick, Coronation Avenue, Duncan, lent their home and grounds recently for a garden party sponsored by the Looking Out Circle, Junior King's Daughters. Mrs. Frank McEwan was general convener with Mrs. J. S. Lawrence in charge of a treasure hunt. A stall of hand-made clothing for children was convened by Mrs. D. Pitt and Mrs. E. L. Robson, and the bran tub for kiddies by Mrs. Clarence Evans. All circle members assisted in serving tea, convened by Mrs. F. McEwan. Mrs. S. Cowan made and donated corsage bouquets which found a ready sale, also sweet peas donated by R. Crossland. Mrs. T. Kilpatrick, vice-president of the circle, welcomed guests, and Mrs. P. LeMare, the president, was in general charge.

South Saanich W.I.—Last meeting of the summer season for South Saanich Women's Institute was held with Mrs. J. Sutherland presiding. Plans were made to donate two benches for the use of Keating school and tennis club. Crates of strawberries were sent to the Orphanage and to the Solarium. A donation of $10 was made to the Cancer Fund and $5 to the Salvation Army. Card parties will be resumed in September for the winter season. Following the meeting members held a strawberry social with Mrs. W. D. Michell and Mrs. W. W. Michell acting as hostesses.

Achieves Desire

Lifetime ambition to become an opera star is about to be realized by Mary Stewart, seen here, of Vancouver. She has been offered the second lead in "Rigoletto" at the Cambridge Theatre in London, Eng. Married to a diplomat, her husband's work took her to the Far East, where she was imprisoned by the Japanese, and to Portugal, where twin daughters were born.

Town Topics

Hand-picked pockets make significant style news in the roll-collar chambray yellow wool suede coat. The crisp Stetson sailor of natural Italian straw repeats the coat color in a perky pompadour.

Do You Feel Nervous And All on Edge?

People suffering from loss of appetite and run-down condition with symptoms of nerve strain often need a nerve and general tonic. Glycero-Lecithin with Vitamin B(1) supplies tonic ingredients. It is especially beneficial for convalescents. By increasing the supply of Vitamin B(1) in the system, appetite is improved and the system thereby built up to normal if the loss of appetite was due to deficiency of Vitamin B(1) in the diet. $1.00 at all Cunningham Drug Stores and other drug stores.

Victorian Weds Creston Nurse

Miss Dorothy DeVee Chappell, a graduate of Royal Jubilee Hospital, and Charlie Cameron, son of Mrs. M. Cameron, Elnora, Alta., and the late D. Cameron, were principals in a wedding of interest at Trinity United Church, Creston, B.C., at noon, Tuesday.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. K. Chappell, Creston, B.C., was given in marriage by her father. Filmy net billowed over the wedding gown of brocade satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves pointed over the wrists, and full skirt, slightly en train.

Mrs. V. Bruce was her sister's matron of honor in peach nylon taffeta. White carnations fashioned her headpiece and were repeated in her bouquet with blue stocks.

Niece of the bride, little Donna Coleman, was flower girl in blue nylon with pink rosebuds in her hair. She carried a Colonial bouquet.

The groom was attended by E. M. Coleman, Vancouver. M. C. Chappell, Kimberley, B.C., showed guests to their seats.

Rev. B. F. Ennals, officiating minister, proposed the toast to the bride at a reception at the home of the bride's parents. A lace-cloth covered the table where a three-tier cake wreathed in blush pink roses, was centred. Mrs. Chappell assisted in receiving guests.

Following their honeymoon in the south, Mr. and Mrs. Cameron will make their home in Victoria. The bride traveled in a three-piece grey gabardine suit with black accessories.

500 Quotarians Gather For Friendly Borders Convention

Over 500 members of Quota Club International, Inc., converged on Victoria today to commence their four-day "Friendly Borders" convention.

Delegates came from as far east as Boston; from Augusta, Ga., in the south; from Mexico City, where the newest Quota Club has just been founded; from Toronto, Seattle, Vancouver, and many other points in United States and Canada.

International officers arrived on the week-end and on Tuesday held an all-day board meeting in the Princess Charlotte Room at the Empress Hotel.

Today, 21 district governors representing 18 United States, two Canadian and one Mexican district, met for an all-day conference in the same room.

Only district in the international group not represented was Australia, transportation difficulties making it impossible for a delegate to attend. Dr. Mary Powell Northam of Baltimore, international president, presided at both gatherings.

Registration of delegates and members commenced at 3.30 today and will continue Thursday morning.

A reception will be held tonight in the Crystal Ballroom at the Empress Hotel to welcome all members, with Governor Margaret P. Jones of Portland chairman for the evening.

Formal opening of the convention will be held Thursday morning. Dr. Northam presiding. Mayor Percy E. George will bring the official welcome from Victoria and Mrs. Winnifred Rayfuse, M.B.E., as president of the recently formed Victoria Club, the Quotarian welcome to which Bess Noble, Governor of eighth district will respond.

District governors meeting in session today were Buelah Price, Bluefield, W.Va.; Esther S.

Peters, Northampton, Pa.; Elisabeth Blissell, New Kensington, Pa.; Marion Brown, Lawrence, Mass.; Sarah A. Penfield, Hartford, Conn.; Margaret Roller, Alliance, Ohio; Margaret Davenport, Des Moines, Iowa; Bess Noble, Memphis, Tenn.; Eula McGraham, Raton, N.M.; Eleanor D. Kerr, Baltimore; Velva Pickett Brough, Calgary; Bernice Stoakes, Los Angeles; Margaret F. Jones, Portland; Mary Warrick, Taunton, Mass.; Sarah F. D. Miller, Tulsa, Okla.; Helen R. Scholderer, Binghamton, N.Y.; Helen Mackenzie, Hamilton, Ont.; Alice G. Palmer, Norfolk, Va.; Betty Jones, Flint, Mich.; Emma Woody, Baton Rouge, La., and Audrey Hawes, St. Paul, Minn.

Garden Library Begins In July

Children's Garden Library commences this year of July 2 and continues each Monday, Wednesday and Friday throughout the month.

Designed to give children between the ages of three and eight a period of healthy, happy play outdoors, under proper guidance, the Garden Library combines books, story telling, games, dramatization, health rhythms, handwork and worship in garden surroundings. It also aims to teach a citizenship that will develop regard for others, expressed in service to others.

The library was founded four years ago with the slogans "Guided Reading," "Fun With Value" and "Recreation for Health." A slogan for parents was also chosen, "In Our Hands Rests Their Future."

It was founded and still continues on the volunteer plan.

Each year an able volunteer staff gives time and talent; books in the bookhouse are loaned free of charge.

There has never been a charge. Voluntary contributions given by parents and interested friends has enabled the steady expansion of both playground and library.

This year the theme around which programs will be built is "Our Friendly World." Theme of the mothers' educational group, meeting at the same time as the children, is "Together We Build A Friendly World."

Many out-of-town volunteers will be on the staff including Mrs. Douglas McMynn and Miss Alison Kerr, Penticton; Mrs. W. G. Davies, Vancouver; Murray Ford, Calgary; Mrs. Walter Driver, Toronto, and Wilmer Cape, Hamilton.

Local members include Mesdames C. Hilton, J. Fraser, A. H. Davies, J. L. P. Edwards, R. A. Freeman, A. B. Thompson, Frank Mawdsley, G. Johnston, S. Ralph, H. Low, W. Holdridge, T. W. A. Gray, F. Hoover, E. V. Finland, Misses Charlotte Hardie, Trudie McGill and Florence Phillimore.

Mothers' Group leaders will include Dr. Marian Sherman, Dr. Henrietta Anderson, Mrs. E. E. Harper and Mrs. W. H. Yardley.

39th Annual Prize Giving At St. Margarets

Graduating class of St. Margaret's School, in their simple white sports dresses and red blazers marched in formation into the gymnasium of the school Tuesday evening to receive leaving certificates.

A large audience of parents and friends gathered for the 39th annual prize-giving at the school. W. H. M. Haldane acted as chairman for the evening and introduced Dean Cecil Swanson who addressed the graduating class and presented awards.

Miss Hilda M. Pearce, head mistress of the school, gave a comprehensive report of the year's activities in which she stressed importance of high academic standing. Miss Pearce also pointed out that the building of character was one of the main interests of the school.

Seek Enforcement Of Noxious Weeds Act In Esquimalt

No longer will the woodbine twine round the fence of H.M.C.S. Naden if Bruce and Gwen Cash of Tree Tops, 920 Admirals Road, have their way.

They wrote a letter to Esquimalt council, read at the council meeting Tuesday night, in which they asked the municipality to enforce the Noxious Weeds Act for the protection of properties and gardens.

"On all sorts of properties, particularly subdivisions (some of them municipal) Canada Thistles, some 6, 8 and even 10 feet high, will seed in a few days to spread further unsightliness to beauty lovers and misery to gardeners," wrote Mr. and Mrs. Cash.

"And on the wire fence surrounding Naden, the convolvulus septium, or the common hedge-bine weed is in full flower and will soon be in destructive seed."

"The blowing of such seed, for miles will raise havoc among gardeners," they wrote.

"If this were brought to the attention of the officer commanding Naden, I am sure he'd be willing to deal with it," they continued, adding "24D gets rid of both the hedge-bines in very short order after one or two applications. I don't think the sailors would miss it or regret its destruction."

Council decided to refer the matter to the municipal solicitor to see whether a by-law would be necessary.

"We'd have to cut all our municipally owned lots," commented Councillor G. R. Guillemaud. "There are plenty of them."

To Supervise Esquimalt Playgrounds For 6 Weeks

Left to right: Barbara Floyd, Arthur McCoy and Beverley Wilms, who will be instructors for the Recreational Council of the Parent-Teacher Association in Esquimalt, sponsoring supervised playgrounds in Esquimalt for six weeks. Bullen's Park will be supervised for three weeks from July 7 and Esquimalt High School grounds for three weeks from July 28. There will be an opening ceremony, to inaugurate the move in Esquimalt, at Bullen's Park July 7 in the evening.

Councillor Bishop Suggests Hospital Sweeps Resolution

Indications that resolutions on sweepstakes for hospitals, a board of assessment commissioners, income-tax free indemnities for reeves and councillors, and a tax on income, rather than on taxpayers alone, for education costs, would be placed before Esquimalt Council for submission to the Union of B.C. Municipalities' convention, at Harrison Hot Springs September 16 and 17, were given at the Esquimalt Council meeting, Tuesday night.

The meeting was the first with newly-elected Reeve A. I. (Bert) Thomas in the chair. Reeve Thomas was elected in Thursday's by-election, which resulted from the death of Col. Ernest J. Read in May.

Councillor A. C. Wurtele who had been acting reeve, welcomed Reeve Thomas to the council and said that all members had always worked in amity and hoped all would continue to do so.

"I am glad to accept the position of reeve and know I can count on the co-operation of all for the good of Esquimalt," said Reeve Thomas.

Question of resolutions was brought up by Councillor G. V. Bishop, who recommended that one on sweepstakes for hospitals be submitted.

INDEMNITIES

"Indemnities of the reeve and councillors should be exempt from income tax," Councillor Bishop told council.

On the question of school assessments, he said the rate stood at 35 mills with every prospect of going higher next year, mentioning 40 as probable figure. There should be a change he said, with the money for education costs coming from people's income rather than solely out of the pockets of taxpayers. He suggested one percent of a person's income as a possible figure.

"There are youngsters earning $100 and $150 a month who don't pay a penny toward education costs," Councillor Bishop said.

"You want to invoke the Jones Tax again then," said Reeve Thomas.

Councillor Wurtele said it was the intention of the late Reeve Read that Esquimalt submit a resolution to the U.B.C.M. convention urging establishment of a board of assessment commissioners.

Reeve Thomas asked that all councillors wishing to bring forward resolutions, prepare a draft of their ideas for the next meeting.

APPOINT GUILLEMAUD

Councillor G. R. Guillemaud was appointed chairman of the public works committee temporarily, owing to the absence of Councillor J. A. Ellis. Reeve Thomas took the position of chairman of the finance committee until the return to council of two councillors at present absent.

B.C. Electric Railway Co. Ltd., Transportation Franchise By-Law, Kinver Drainage District By-Law and the Parks By-Law were finally passed at the meeting.

Council adopted suggestion of E. Fulcher, superintendent of public works, that an increase of $10 a month be granted employees of his department who had been with the municipality some years. At the present time beginners and veterans with the department are paid the same salary. Adjustment of the holiday schedule in his department was left to Mr. Fulcher.

In his report Mr. Fulcher raised the question of oiling or placing salt on portions of roadway, causing a dust problem, until such time as permanent road repairs are made. He said that as street car service would be discontinued in Esquimalt July 1, the B.C. Electric Railway Co. would not be interested in dust abatement.

Esquimalt Discusses Foster Pier Upkeep

Opinions of foreshore property taxpayers, on the maintenance of Foster's Pier at foot of Canteen Road, in Esquimalt Harbor, and general information on the ownership and responsibility for the pier, will be gathered by Councillor G. V. Bishop, on instructions of Esquimalt Council, at its meeting Tuesday night.

A letter was received from Deputy Minister W. G. Mills of the Department of National Defence, that in view of the cessation of hostilities, the department had no objection to the use of the pier by the public. The letter added, however, that the department could accept no responsibility for maintenance.

Another letter was read from naval headquarters here stating that no objection could be foreseen to the public's use of the pier, provided the department was held in no way responsible. During the war the pier was used for a landing place when canteen grounds were used for a playing field. There is no record of the pier ever having been owned by the Department of National Defence.

Councillor Bishop stated that foreshore property-owners had kept up the pier in the past. He said a new float should be added.

Councillor A. C. Wurtele, asked to continue as Esquimalt's representative on the Greater Victoria transportation committee, will seek more definite instructions on the removal of the street railway tracks in Esquimalt, council agreed.

Suggestion of E. Fulcher, superintendent of Public Works that a price restriction of from $7,000 to $10,000 be placed on buildings on Stephenson Street and that the building inspector should have the authority to say where the house should be placed on the lot, was endorsed by council. Elevation and style of house will also be subject to approval before a permit is granted.

Request of W. Clarke to have lots at the corner of Craigflower and Arm Street rezoned for a garage district was referred to the Town-Planning Commission.

Invitation of the Esquimalt Community Club to attend the annual garden party July 2 was received with Reeve A. I. Thomas and as many councillors to be present as possible. As many as can attend, will accept the invitation of the Citizenship Committee of the Local Council of Women to be present at the "I Am A Canadian" ceremony. Letter of Miss C. L. Rose with regard to a garage on Fraser and Bewdley, was referred to the Town-Planning Commission. An offer of $250 for purchase of a lot was accepted from C. T. and S. Platt.

ONE MINUTE NEWS ABOUT JOHNS-MANVILLE

HANDY AS WOOD BUT FIREPROOF

One of the most useful products Johns-Manville has ever developed from asbestos is a building material known as Asbestos Flexboard. Made of asbestos and cement, Flexboard comes in big sheets, four feet by eight feet which saw and nail like wood. It is fireproof, rotproof and durable as stone—yet can be bent to fit moderately curved surfaces.

Flexboard is "just the thing" for partitioning living quarters or sub-dividing your basement into recreation room, laundry or storage room. And, since it is unaffected by weather, Flexboard can be used out-of-doors for either new building or remodeling. For full details and free folder on J-M Flexboard, see your nearest J-M dealer. Women's Institutes Hear Talk On Schools

LANGFORD—Patrick A. Strachan, secretary of the Sooke District No. 62 Board, gave an explanatory talk of the new school system of taxes before the meeting of Women's Institute members Tuesday afternoon.

The Camron and Goldenberg reports were cited by the speaker. Many questions were asked by the members.

A new high school for grades 7, 8, 9, 10 is being built on Station Road to accommodate pupils from Happy Valley, Colwood and Langford, and will be opened next September. It will consist of huts from the Colwood army camp.

The mass of the moon has been determined to be 80-100 of the earth's mass.

Island Trade Boards At Courtenay Hear Power Commissioner

COURTENAY—One hundred and fifty delegates from 15 Boards of Trade are meeting in the Elks' Hall here on the second and concluding day of the 29th annual convention of the Associated Boards of Trade of Vancouver Island.

S. B. Weston, chairman of the B.C. Power Commission addressed a dinner meeting of delegates in the Native Sons' Hall, Tuesday night, in which he said the commission had put 55 generating plants into operation throughout B.C. since the establishment of the commission, little more than two years ago.

Mr. Weston told the group that the first 25,000 horsepower unit at the new Campbell River development would be in operation within the next few months.

Establishment of a similar unit would follow shortly, he said. "When all is completed at the Campbell River plant, the total production capacity will be 150,000 horsepower, equal to the working power of 1,500,000 men," Mr. Weston told the delegates.

First power from the Campbell River plant will go to the Alberni, he said. J. V. Johnson, president, and George I. Warren, secretary, are attending the convention as delegates of the Victoria Chamber of Commerce.

London Theatres See Business Drop; Explanations Vary

LONDON (CP)—They're talking "slump" in London's theatre land and some west end pundits are glumly sure the current drop in business isn't just seasonal. Britain's economic mood and a steep entertainment tax are blamed as well as the it's-too-cold-it's-too-hot weather.

C. B. Cochran, senior producer of large-scale musical shows, stoutly says no slump exists although he admits the cheaper seats for his current success, Sir Alan Herbert's "Bless the Bride," are not always sold out. Cheap seats are always first affected by a recession.

There is indeed a "so-called slump," argues W. A. Darlington, authoritative critic of The Daily Telegraph—"Inevitable, healthy and a cause for rejoicing. . . . In fact, not a slump at all but a highly desirable return to normal."

Only new shows that seem set for an indefinite run are the imported "Oklahoma" and "Annie Get Your Gun."

Sir Alan, independent member of parliament for Oxford University as well as a long-established satirist and playwright, isn't unduly worried about "Bless the Bride," which is doing relatively good business, but he became a spokesman for the harassed theatrical industry by suggesting the 40 per cent entertainment tax be slashed.

Sir Alan's amendment to the finance bill, which would have cut the tax in half, was defeated by 206 to 99.

Y.M.C.A. Summer Vacation Club Schedule Announced

An interesting and varied program for the Y.M.C.A. summer City Vacation Club was announced by Peter Spence, Y.M.C.A. Boys' Secretary today.

The club, which will be held for three one-week periods starting July 7, is open to all boys in the city.

Daily programs, which commence with chapel and roll call at 9:15 each morning Monday through Friday, include hobbies and gym games, swimming at the "Y" and at beaches, hikes, picnics and educational trips.

Monday's program following roll call is: 9:30—hobbies and games; 11:15—swimming; 1:15—games at Beacon Hill park; 3:30—swim. Tuesday, the schedule is: 9:30—all-day picnic at Mount Douglas Park; 4—swim at Y.M.C.A. Wednesday: 9:30—games and hobbies; 11:15—swimming; 1:15—educational trip to Island Farms Dairy and Match Factory; 4—Swim at Y.M.C.A.

Feature of Thursday's program is the all-day picnic at Goldstream, leaving the Y.M.C.A. at 9:30. The bus will return at 3:30 with a swim in the "Y" pool slated for 4.

There will be competitive games, gymnasium classes and hobbies at 9:30 Friday; swimming at 11:15; an educational trip to Falconer Marine Works at 1:15, winding up with the usual dip in the "Y" pool at 4.

Special instructions issued with the weekly program are that each person is to bring a towel, running shoes and lunch when reporting in the morning. Learn to swim classes will be held each morning from 10:45 to 11:15.

Costs Money To Change Road Name

"I wonder if people on this road realize that this will cost each of them some money?" was the question voiced by Reeve E. C. Warren at the meeting of the Saanich Council Tuesday night when a letter was read from Mr.

and Mrs. E. Cheston and W. and B. Waterion to have Eva Road's name changed to that of "Lynn." In the letter the people said they liked the sound of "Lynn" better. They will be notified of the financial requirements such as the procedure would entail.

Amazing Soapless VEL

cleans better. washes faster

VEL gives water amazing new cleaning power—makes it penetrate, lift out dirt, cut grease fast!

VEL dissolves instantly, completely, even when you add cool, hard water.

One big advantage is that VEL's light, foamy suds disappear quickly . . . the water stays clear. You see what you wash. No heavy clinging suds.

No gummy soap film to cloud glasses, nylons, silks, etc.

VEL contains no harsh, soapy alkalis, works well without hot water, so hands don't get red and sore.

You need very little VEL for most jobs. One or two tablespoonsful is enough to make glasses sparkle, cut grease from dishes. No need to add more when suds disappear for VEL cleans without suds.

VEL WORKS MIRACLES

Eliminates sticky suds—soapy film

Leaves glasses sparkling clean. Keeps silks, nylons brighter, sheerer—Woolens softer, fluffier—clothes snowy-white.

Save time and wash cleaner, by soaking heavily-soiled laundry in a VEL solution for a little while before washing. To remove deep-down, grimy dirt, sprinkle on a little dry VEL, then rub gently.

Capital Punishment Right Says Canada, France; Other Opinions

The French public, and that of Canada, see virtually eye to eye on the question of capital punishment, and differ sharply from such countries as United States, Holland, and Brazil.

In both Canada and France, nearly seven in ten voters believe that death is the only possible punishment for certain crimes. Hollanders are just as emphatic in opposing capital punishment.

This clash of viewpoint showed up when, in an international survey by affiliated Institutes of Public Opinion in Canada, United States, France, Holland and Brazil, the public of each country was asked a corresponding question to the one asked in Canada: "In some countries a convicted murderer is never sentenced to death but is given a term of imprisonment. In Canada, most convicted murderers are sentenced to death. Which do you think is the better system for Canada?"

The question in the other four countries, of course, asked the public what it thought should be the system in their own country. Here are the comparisons:

	Capital Punishment	No Capital Punishment	Undecided
Canada	69%	22%	9%
U.S.A.	46	46	8
France	68	21	11
Holland	23	64	13
Brazil	35	57	32

* The recently affiliated Brazilian Institute is at present reporting only opinion of voters in Rio de Janeiro and São Paulo combined.

In Holland (as in most Scandinavian countries), capital punishment was banned some years ago, but was re-introduced only to deal with war criminals.

Under Brazilian law, the death penalty is prescribed for military crimes, and crimes of exceptional cruelty, but the executive has the

ALL THE Extra VITAMINS AND MINERALS ... SHE NEEDS

Authorities say the difference between husky children and those who are poor eaters, underweight, and nervous is often simply a matter of proper nourishment, especially an adequate supply of vitamins and minerals.

But don't worry about vitamins and minerals! Children who eat 3 average-good meals including fruit juice, and drink 2 glasses of Ovaltine each day, are getting all the extra vitamins and minerals they need.

In addition to its well-balanced food values, Ovaltine adds significant amounts of Vitamins A, B₁, and D and the minerals Calcium, Phosphorus and Iron. So, if your child is not developing normally, remember this rule:

3 good meals plus 2 glasses of Ovaltine every day.

The legation spokesman said the boy merely had "left New York without permission" to visit two brothers in Paris and would return within four or five days to school.

Teaching The Blind To Swim

Archie McKinnon, swimming coach of the Y.M.C.A., describes the fundamentals of swimming to six members of the Canadian National Institute for the Blind at the Crystal Garden yesterday afternoon. Ina Salmon, member of the Flying "Y" squad, is seen alongside McKinnon, and assisted him in the first of the swimming classes which the Flying "Y" club is voluntarily giving to the blind. Arrangements for the classes were completed by local secretary Dorothy Stark of the C.N.I.B., which is a member of the Community Chest, and McKinnon, and will be held every Tuesday during the summer.

Live Putter Gives Ferrier Golf Title

DETROIT (AP)—Tall, stoop-shouldered Jim Ferrier, Australian-born chip and putt master from San Francisco, ruled as the match king of professional golf today after whipping home-bred Melvin (Chick) Harbert, of Northville, Mich., 2 and 1, in the "Battle of Plum Hollow" for the United States P.G.A. championship.

Ferrier, who hadn't won a major national championship since he left Australia in 1939 after four triumphs in the Australian amateur and two in the Australian open, zoomed into fourth place in the pros' 1947 money parade by pocketing the $3,500 top prize here for his first tournament victory of the year. In running his tournament earnings to $9,669 since the first of the year, Ferrier played approximately 12 rounds in a week over Plum Hollow Golf Club's long, tricky, 6,922-yard layout at an aggregate of 27 strokes under par for 204 holes.

ONE-CLUB GOLFER

If anybody ever won a championship with one club Ferrier did it with his putter. He dropped in a 6-foot putt on the 36th green to carry his third round match with Claude Harmon into extra holes, winning on the 37th, and "putted" Harbert right out of the championship in yesterday's final.

Ferrier required just 34 putts for the 35 holes his match with Harbert went, dropping six of them at distances ranging from 15 to 25 feet.

As Ferrier received the huge championship cup, its top dented when its police sergeant-custodian dropped it, the new champion said: "I was awfully lucky to sink some putts at the right time," and Harbert replied: "That's the grossest understatement I've ever heard."

United, St. Andrews In Crucial Clash

Victoria United will get one more crack at Vancouver St. Andrews before the football season winds up for the year, and that battle will take place at Macdonald Park Saturday at 6:15.

St. Andrews were the most troublesome eleven to the United in their Coast League schedule and the locals are after revenge, especially as this will be a Dominion title playdown.

Sacramento Stops Angels' Win Streak

Sacramento stopped the Los Angeles winning streak, 7 to 5, but the Angels still had a two-game lead today in the Coast League baseball race.

The Angels, who swept seven games from San Diego last week, found themselves behind, 5 to 1, going into the last of the sixth inning yesterday, but homers by Johnny Ostrowski and Lloyd Christopher tied the score.

The Solons' winning run came in the eighth as Leo Wells singled Alex Kampouris home from second and they got an extra tally in the ninth, Eddie Zipray scoring on Johnny Rizzo's double. Sacramento had a topheavy advantage in hits, 17-6.

San Francisco's Seals went across the bay last night to smack down Oakland, 5 to 1, leaving the Oaks in second place but only one percentage point ahead of the Seals.

The Portland Beavers came from behind in the ninth inning to dim the Hollywood Stars, 6 to 5.

Amateur Baseball

Canadian Legion and Pitzer and Nex will supply the highlights in the senior amateur ball game at Macdonald Park tonight at 7.

Frank Scroggs is due to start for the Vets with Murray MacArthur, Mount View High School righthander the probable choice for the gasmen.

Featherweight Bout At Armories Tonight

Professional boxing returns to Victoria tonight with the feature bout on the card at the Armories a 10-round featherweight battle between Freddie Steele of Vancouver and Cedric Flournoy of Detroit.

The six-round semi-final will feature Gordie Gordienko, local fisticuffer, and Sam Hughes of Detroit in a heavyweight match. Bob Anderson and George Livingston, welterweights, will clash in one of the preliminaries, which get under way at 8.

SECOND SOFTBALL TITLE

North Ward softballers yesterday afternoon gained their second successive elementary school's softball title when the junior girls' nine defeated Margaret Jenkins 10 to 2 in a playoff at Central Park. North Ward had previously captured the senior girls' title.

Rookie Iott Pitches Giants To Smart Win

Baseball's bargain basement find of the season may be Clarence (Hooks) Iott, a husky lefthander cast off by St. Louis Browns and picked up by New York Giants for the $10,000 waiver tag.

Three hours after the 28-year-old Ozark lad joined the club yesterday, manager Mel Ott gave him his first major league starting assignment.

Iott shook curves and fast balls out of his arm in limiting Chicago Cubs to two hits as the Giants backed him with a 13-hit bombardment for an 11 to 0 shutout victory. He fanned eight batsmen and walked five.

"All we knew about 'Hooks' was that he had wild spells on the mound," beamed Ott. "That two-hitter was a big lift for the whole club. We had to have another southpaw while Monte Kennedy is recovering from a fractured skull. That's why we picked up Iott. I was pleasantly surprised."

The Giants victory kept them on the heels of the National League leaders as Boston Braves retained possession of first place with a 9 to 6 win over St. Louis Cardinals while the runner-up Brooklyn Dodgers took a 4 to 2 decision from the hapless Pittsburgh Pirates.

Southpaw Warren Spahn went the route for the Braves and gained his 11th victory as against two setbacks. The Cards hammered his pitches for eight hits including homers by Stan Musial, Ducky Medwick and Erv Dusak.

ROBINSON STEALS HOME

At Pittsburgh, the Dodgers handed the tail-end Pirates their 20th defeat in their last 25 games. Fleet Jackie Robinson stole home in the fifth inning to break a 2 to 2 tie and the Brooks added an insurance run in the seventh.

Cincinnati Reds stopped the sliding Philadelphia Phillies, 4 to 2 at Cincinnati.

Rookie lefthander Kent Peterson had a one-hit shutout in his grasp until he blew up in the ninth and was relieved by Harry Gumbert who stopped the Phils after they had scored twice.

Ellis Kinder gained his fifth straight triumph as St. Louis Browns trampled Philadelphia Athletics, 12 to 3 at Philadelphia. Kinder blanked the A's after the first inning while the Browns

Sister Act In Starring Role As Eaglettes Victors

The Pettigrew sisters, Pat and Helen, last night combined to pitch Eaglettes to an 8 to 6 victory over the league leading Hudson's Bay squad in a senior A women's softball game.

Brought up from the farm team, Gobblins, for the game, Pat Pettigrew drew the starting assignment. For six innings the young twirler held the hard hitting department store team to three runs before bumping into trouble in the seventh when she was relieved by Helen—other half of the sister act—who retired the side.

Eaglettes, meanwhile, were pecking away at the offerings of Hilda Post and led 8 to 3 going into the last frame. Two bases on balls and a home run by Ruth Murray gave the Bays three runs. Losers then threatened to steal the game loading the bases with two out. Helen Pettigrew struck out Flo Kennedy to give her younger sister the win.

In men's senior B games, Dominion Meat Market trounced Victoria Merchants 15 to 2 and R.C.A.F. defeated Sidney, Duroids 18 to 12.

New Method Laundry sprang a surprise in the women's senior B loop by defeating Gobblins 12 to 8. It was only the second victory of the season for the Laundry squad.

Lake Hill took an extra inning game from St. Saviours in a juvenile game, winning 7 to 5.

Sports Mirror

By PETE SALLAWAY

AFTER watching nine pitchers parade to the mound in Monday night's Victoria-Yakima ball game I was struck by the thought it might be a sound idea for directors of the Western International League to draft new regulations regarding the player and salary limits governing the eight clubs. Right now circuit is definitely a hitter's league and will continue to be such as long as the clubs can carry only seven members on their pitching rosters. Outside a few outstanding moundsmen, such as Hub Kittle, Bob Costello, Ken Wyatt, Jim Lowman, Joe Sullivan and Carl Gunnarson, majority of the flingers are having their troubles putting together respectable won and lost records.

WHEN the league introduced the split week into the schedule this season it was a cinch the pitchers would have their troubles. The tossers are just overworked and unless a manager is fortunate enough to get his staff working in fair rotation he is certain to experience grief. Take the case of the Athletics for instance. Earlier in the season they played a doubleheader here on a Saturday and hustled to Tacoma for two games on Sunday. Just imagine how that overburdens a small mound staff. The boys are bound to come up with sore arms. From all indications the tough schedule has finally caught up with Bremerton, Kittle, one of the best, if not the best, pitchers in the league, has dropped his last two games. Vancouver Caplanos suffered a slump a few weeks ago and it was due to sore arms among the pitching corps.

FOR the clubs to go through a 157-game split week schedule they should have at least another two pitchers, making nine in all. This would give better balance to the clubs and make for better baseball. Under the present set-up there just aren't enough pitchers to go around, even if all seven are ready to work. And, furthermore, it is mighty seldom that a staff does not have one or two pitchers nursing sore flippers. Such injuries throw a tremendous load on the remaining members of the staff.

THERE'S another important point. Many of the hurlers in a class B circuit are youngsters who are getting valuable experience in preparation for entry into higher company. It's certainly not the best thing for them to get too much work. Most of them are still in the process of physical development and overstrain might ruin their arms for all time. It would no doubt take quite a bit of figuring to increase the player limit, as the salary limit would also enter into the picture, but it could be worked out. And I am sure larger pitching staffs would make for better baseball.

Mastro's 2 Home Runs Highlight A's Victory

Vic Mastro, chunky catcher of the Victoria Athletics, demonstrated just why he is leading all hitters in the Western International League last night when he clouted a pair of home runs to personally lead his club to a 6 to 3 victory over Yakima Stars. It marked the second straight win for Manager Ted Norbert's charges and kept them in fourth place, one game up on Vancouver Caplanos. The A's are two and a half games back of third-place Salem.

Evidence of the closeness of the current W.I.L. race is that only 6½ games separate the first six clubs.

Mastro's final payoff round-tripper came in the 9th inning and sent over 1,200 fans home in a happy frame of mind. They had seen a thrilling nip and tuck ball game with a fitting story book finish.

With the score deadlocked 3 to 3, outfielder Johnny Hooper cracked the ball against the centre field wall for two bases to open the inning. Manager Harold Clift ordered Bill White purposely passed, apparently figuring Mastro would be given orders to hunt. With two strikes on him Mastro parked the ball into the front yard of a home on Pembroke Street and the game was won.

Sharing the glory with Mastro was right-hander Lenny Kasparovitch who came up with another smart pitching stand to get credit for his sixth victory. Kasparovitch gave up only six hits, with home runs by Frank Robinson in the fifth and the veteran Spencer Harris in the sixth costing him all three runs. He struck out five, with two of them coming in the top of the ninth as he took no chances of going behind.

ROMPLE INJURED

Yakima, after having lost the services of catcher Buddy Phillips the previous night with a split finger, suffered further hard luck when starting pitcher Fritz Romple was cut down in the second inning when struck on the knee by a ground smash off the bat of Jack Harshman. He will be out of the game for several days. Southpaw Rowell Wallerstein, who was rushed in to take over, turned in a creditable performance, but was charged with his second loss in as many nights.

After three scoreless innings, Athletics took a 1 to 0 lead in the fourth on Mastro's first four-baser. Robinson's over the fence walloped with Clift on the bags moved Yakima in front 2 to 1 in the fifth. Wallerstein's error, allowing Kasparovitch to score gave the A's the tying run in the last of the fifth. Harris contributed his home run for Yakima in the sixth with Leo Rightetti duplicating the feat for the A's in the same inning to leave the clubs deadlocked, 3 to 3.

New P.G.A. Champion

JIM FERRIER

Literally "putting" Chick Harbert, Northville, Mich., into defeat 2 and 1, Ferrier, former Australian champion and now a resident of San Francisco, won the United States Professional Golfers' Association match play championship yesterday. Ferrier studies a long putt on the 16th green at Detroit's Plum Hollow course.

650 Horses Set For Opening At Lansdowne

VANCOUVER—They'll be "off and running" at Lansdowne Park Friday at 3:30 as on all week days while on Saturdays and holidays the bugle will sound at 2:30. If last Sunday's preview was any criterion this summer's horse racing season should be tops.

Lansdowne Park today is a picture-plant. The stands and boxes have been freshened with a new paint job, while for the first time the mutual ring looks pleasing in its new dress of red and white. The clubhouse and lawns, together with the improved paddock, jockeys' house with its lockers and Finnish bath, together with the newly-constructed administrative building, lends color to the whole scene.

MANY RIDERS

More than 650 horses, together with 20 riders including at least 10 apprentice boys will be on hand when the racing curtain is rung up. It is the first time in many seasons that owners have brought their young apprentice riders to British Columbia tracks. Race-lovers know that it is the apprentice boys that add zest to the king of sport. They are always "on their belly" striving to bring their mounts down in front. After all it is the experience gained in these formative years that stamps them high or low in the jockey world.

Two decades ago many apprentice riders who went on to reach the top of their profession, got their start on Vancouver tracks. Such boys as Johnny Longdon, Don Meade, Willie Molter, Johnny Pollard, and Ike Mills rode as apprentice boys on the Lula Island tracks.

Practically all the leading owners on Vancouver Island have their horses in training at one of the three mainland courses. There will be some old-time favorites missing from the list of entries so far as Lansdowne and Brighouse Park are concerned. After a careful investigation the stewards have decided they will no longer accept the entries of some 34 horses that have raced over B.C. tracks for many years. Among the missing will be Sahara Chief, Be Mine, Avondale Star, Broad Royal, Commendable, Miss Noyes, Si Green, Sable Gift, Sunny Monday and My Tom.

Legion were shorthanded last night, only 11 men being in strip, but that didn't hamper them from running up their seventh straight victory of the season in the senior lacrosse tilt at Stevenson Memorial Park, defeating Tillicum 16 to 9.

Games between these two clubs have not always been played on the most friendly terms and last night's was no exception. Climax to the heavy checking prevalent during the game came in the last minute of play when a minor free-for-all took place.

Roy Lawrence of Tillicum and Darrell Popham of Legion were the instigators of the fracas and both received five minutes for their part. Dakers got 10 minutes for throwing too many punches. Tillicum had tallied four goals in the first period of the game before the Vets untracked themselves last night. But once the kings of the local gutted stick loop got rolling it was easy sliding the rest of the way. Buddy Lott led the attack on Aitken in the clubmen's nets, notching four goals.

Haftime score was 7 to 6 for the Legion while three-quarter time score was 13 to 8 for the winners.

On Thursday night a juvenile game between Young Tillicum and Pollards will precede the main game. Feature will be between Foul Bay and Legion at 7.

Teams and scores follow:
Legion — Buzz Long, T. McKeachie 1, F. Ranson 3, Ferguson 1, McKim 1, J. McKeachie, Malr 1, Baker 2, D. Popham 2, Lott 4, Allen 1.
Tillicum — Aitken, Coates 2, Lawrence, Bradley, Ritchie 1, Bob Long, Monaghan 1, Bourke, Dakers, Ellis 1, E. Popham 2, McMillan, J. Ranson 2.

MINOR BASEBALL
Tillicum defeated Ace Woodworkers, 12 to 2, last night to move into a third-place tie in the midget section of the minor ball league standings. Forbes pitched for the winners, with Sapala going the distance for the losers.

JOKERS PRACTICE
Manager Roy Woolsey has called a workout for tonight at 7:30, at Stevenson Park, for the Jokers lacrosse team and looks for a full turnout of members.

CANADIAN FOOTBALL MEETING
A special meeting of all persons and groups interested in the fall program for Canadian football will be held tonight at the British Public Schools Club, at 8.

BUTTON-GOLF
Ted Colgate and Laurie Kerr of Colwood Golf Club will defend their city golf buttons against the challenge of Harold Lineham and Tom Forbes also of Colwood in a match to be played at Colwood Sunday at 2.

Tom Thomas Lands 32-lb. Silver Button Salmon

By ROY THORSEN
Evidence for Sunday derbyists that there are silver button specimens in Saanich Inlet's waters at the present time was proven Tuesday when Thomas S. Thomas, Judah Avenue, reeled in a 32 pound specimen to register for his silver emblem from the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association.

This is the first silver claim for the year.

He was fishing the waters between the Boulder and McKenzie Bay when he tied into the big fellow. He had 400 feet of wire line out, was employing a planer and a No. 6 Wonder spoon.

Among the other bigger-size fish taken yesterday was Harry Coull's 22-pounder on a Lucky Louie plug to put in his claim for a bronze button. The team of Bill and Dan Kreller yesterday took 22, 20 and 15-pound specimens and a pair of grise.

Babe Ruth Returns To Hospital Bed

NEW YORK (AP)—Babe Ruth is back in the hospital on the advice of his physicians, for further treatment and "to take things easy for a few weeks."

"I even get tired taking a walk around the living-room," the Babe was quoted by friends as saying as he entered the hospital yesterday. "I can't seem to gain any strength, so I guess I'll just get some rest here."

Oak Bay, Esquimalt, View Royal Vote On School By-law Tomorrow

Ratepayers of Oak Bay, Esquimalt and View Royal will decide tomorrow whether or not they approve the $1,956,912 school building by-law. Victoria ratepayers cast their votes last Thursday and Saanich ratepayers will vote Saturday.

The province is to match the expenditure of the municipalities dollar for dollar, making the total school building for the area close to $4,000,000 should the by-laws be approved.

Ask City Approval On New Bus Service

Dr. W. A. Carrothers, chairman of the Public Utilities Commission, has written the City Council regarding the proposed change-over from streetcars to buses on the Gorge, Esquimalt, and part of the Uplands street-car routes.

He stated that the B.C. Electric Railway Company has asked permission to make the changes July 1 and queried if the city had any objections to the proposed change.

All ballot boxes will be sealed and not opened until 8 Saturday night, when the Saanich polls close and the entire vote counted. Polls open in all three areas at 8 in the morning and will remain open until 8 at night.

Voters in Oak Bay will go to the municipal hall. In Esquimalt ratepayers who are registered on Section I of the voters' list will vote at the municipal hall, and those registered on Section II of the list will vote at 855 Craigflower Road.

In View Royal voters will cast their ballots at the View Royal Community Hall.

A three-fifths majority of all those casting their ballots in the four municipalities and the rural area is needed to approve the by-law.

Reg Clarke Sr. has written the City Council asking that arrangements be made to have the returning officer visit the city hospitals either 24 hours in advance of regular polling day, or during the polling day, to permit servicemen who are confined to hospital, to exercise their franchise on civic polls.

H.M.C.S. Uganda To Be Placed In Reserve Fleet

H.M.C.S. Uganda will be placed in the reserve fleet when she arrives at Naden at 10 a.m. Thursday, following a ten-day cruise in coastal waters. Naval Headquarters announced today.

Naval officials said it was the warship's last cruise and that she was expected to be replaced by H.M.C.S. Ontario, which is scheduled to go into service this summer.

The Uganda will berth at the government jetty at Naden.

Sent To Trial On Boat Theft Charge

Thomas Sewell, 18, was committed for trial by Magistrate Henry C. Hall today in city police court at the conclusion of his preliminary hearing to a charge of theft of a $3,500 speedboat owned by Rowland W. Elderton, 1147 Newport Avenue, on the morning of June 14.

John Bowker, owner of the Oak Bay Boat House, identified the accused as the boy who was in the boat when it came into his jetty on the afternoon of June 14. Constable Vernon T. Sands of the Oak Bay Police identified the boat as the boathouse wharf.

"I asked him if he owned the boat and he replied 'no'," said the constable. He received an affirmative reply to a question if the defendant had taken the boat from the inner harbor, "and he also mentioned that he wanted to get some gas and take the boat back to the harbor," witness said. The policeman then arrested him.

Mr. Elderton, the boat owner, said he had left the boat tied to the float in the inner harbor the night before and did not see it again until the next day at the Oak Bay Boat House. It was simple to start, he said. To his knowledge the boat was not damaged.

Plan Campaign For Jubilee Hospital

The Kiwanis Club will launch a drive to raise $42,000 for extensions and improvements at the Royal Jubilee Hospital early in 1948, it was announced Tuesday, following the luncheon meeting at the Empress Hotel.

Most of the money raised will be spent on an extension to the nurses' home, costing $20,000, it was decided. Other expenditures would include additional elevators, $10,000, and improvement of the reception and emergency room facilities, $12,000.

Denis Hagar, immediate past president of the club, said that the money would be raised in a canvass throughout Greater Victoria, and used only for capital expenditures.

Authority was granted by order in council today to the Minister of Fisheries to issue a free permit to the B.C. Research Council to collect all species of aquatic plants in B.C. waters for experimental purposes up to March 31, next year. The council has been conducting an investigation into the incidence and growth of various aquatic plants in B.C. and investigations have proceeded to the point where the collection is required in order to continue.

Barney Olson Resigns From Memorial Arena Board

H. Barney Olson today announced his resignation from the Memorial Arena Commission, and stated that a letter would go to the City Council immediately.

Mr. Olson gave no reasons for his resignation, but stated that he wished the Memorial Arena every success in all its undertakings.

This is the third resignation from the five-man board since the City Council made its first attempt to name the members over a month ago. Archie Willis and J. C. Pendray resigned earlier, and William Bridgwood and Dr. A. Poyntz were named to fill the vacancies.

Mayor Percy George expressed both surprise and disappointment at Mr. Olson's action. "I am particularly sorry to see Mr. Olson resign, as I feel he is a man with first-hand knowledge on the operation of an arena," the mayor said. "I have been disappointed, of course, that any of our appointees saw fit to resign."

The building of the arena is progressing satisfactorily. Ald. R. A. C. Dewar, chairman of the arena committee, said, and half the piers for the roof will be finished by Friday. By next week the sheeting for the roof should be up and the actual construction of the roof will be under way. The construction has been delayed somewhat by hold-

Court Dismisses Suit Against S.P.C.A. Officers

A malicious prosecution suit brought by Sidney Pickles, owner of Sunstead Farm, Saanich, against six executive members, and an inspector of the Victoria Branch of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals, was dismissed in Supreme Court late Tuesday night.

Unanimous finding of the eight-man jury was that Mr. Pickles had suffered no general damages as the result of the charge of neglect of sheep on his Mount Newton Crossroads farm, which was dismissed by Magistrate Henry C. Hall, in Saanich Police Court in March.

Costs of the action must be met by Mr. Pickles.

Through his counsel, H. W. Davey, K.C., Mr. Pickles will launch an appeal.

R. D. Harvey, K.C., counsel for the defendants in the action stated that the libel action pending against Mr. Pickles would be continued by the Victoria Branch of the S.P.C.A.

Named as defendants in Mr. Pickles' suit were: James Barr, president of the Victoria Branch of the S.P.C.A.; Madame Annette B. Viverton, first vice-president; Harold H. Smith, second vice-president; Mrs. E. Williams, recording secretary; Mrs. Florence Barr, corresponding secretary; Mr. Justice A. D. Macfarlane began his charge to the jury at 11:15 Tuesday morning, adjourned at 1, and resumed at 2:30 until 3:40. The jury was in and out of the courtroom until it retired to consider the verdict at 6:20. They returned several times during the evening for direction and brought in their verdict at 10:30.

ANSWER LIST OF QUESTIONS

In a list of questions submitted to the jury in the case, by the presiding judge, the jury found that Dr. Gordon Bruce, animal pathologist at the Dominion Experimental Station at Saanich, "had made the statements which Weeks attributed to him on February 7."

The jury found also that statements attributed to Col. C. T. Evans by Mrs. Florence G. Barr, and Inspector Weeks, had been made to them respectively, by Col. Evans.

In giving evidence Monday, both Col. Evans and Dr. Bruce refuted the statements attributed to them by Mrs. Barr and Weeks.

The jury found that Inspector Weeks did not lay the information, or either of them maliciously; that is "from any motive other than an honest desire to bring a person, the plaintiff, whom he believed to be a guilty person, to justice."

The jury replied negatively to the question: "Did any of the remaining defendants authorize the prosecution of the plaintiff maliciously?"

In answering in the affirmative the question: "Were the statements which C. L. Harrison says he made to Inspector Weeks and Mrs. Barr, in fact made to them," the jury added a rider to the effect that they felt there was some misunderstanding in the interpretation of Mr. Harrison's instruction. Mr. Harrison is the city and Saanich prosecutor.

"Did Weeks honestly believe, taking into consideration all the statements as you find them made on the evidence in this case, that Pickles was probably guilty of the offence charged?" was one question put to the jury, referring to the original charge of neglect of sheep against Mr. Pickles.

"Yes," was the jury's answer.

The case opened in Supreme Court June 16.

From 4:30 until 10 the jury was in and out of the courtroom seeking direction and explanation of special and general damages, as well as having repeated evidence given by Mr. Harrison, Saanich prosecutor, Mrs. Barr and Inspector Weeks, concerning interviews they had with Mr. Harrison before the charge was laid.

Mr. Justice Macfarlane explained general damages as damages being awarded to a plaintiff for violation of rights, damage a plaintiff felt was done his reputation and attack on his good name, or any suffering or disconcerting effects. The amount was variable and the jury should take into consideration the value attached to same.

The jury went out the last time at 10, and returned at 10:30 p.m. unanimously finding that Mr. Pickles had suffered no general damages and only costs of his defence in the police court hearing.

Mr. Justice Macfarlane then dismissed the action, with costs to be met by Mr. Pickles.

Woman Seriously Injured In Fall

Sgt. Eric Elwell of the Saanich Police today is investigating the circumstances which led to Mrs. L. R. Thornton, 609 Ralph Street, being gravely injured in a fall at her home early Tuesday.

Dr. D. M. Whiteley, who is attending Mrs. Thornton at Royal Jubilee Hospital, reported the patient's condition as critical. The doctor thought it likely the main injury was a fractured skull.

Exact details on the nature of the accident were not immediately available, but it was reported that Mrs. Thornton was leaning on the porch banister when it broke and she plunged to the ground.

Saanich Council decided at its meeting Tuesday night to apply to the provincial government for measures to prevent horseback riding and motorcycles on the sandbars of Cordova and Cadboro Bays. A letter from Claude Harrison pointed out that Saanich could not pass a by-law to that effect as the bars were outside the municipal boundaries. Mr. Harrison felt sure government officials would agree to the request.

Increase In B.C.'s Tourist Industry Expected Permanent

The tourist industry in B.C. is showing a heavy increase over previous years and an even greater increase is expected next year, according to Ernest Evans, assistant commissioner of the B.C. Government Travel Bureau.

B.C. is being recognized as the playground of North America, said Mr. Evans, who has found the past few months extremely busy ones. Three girls at the travel bureau are kept busy answering the inquiries which are flooding in from all parts of the world and especially from the 11 western states of the U.S., with whose 385 auto clubs, travel agencies and bureaus the B.C. bureau keeps supplied with information regarding the province.

Inquiries are up 30 per cent over 1946, which was in itself a record year. They come from many parts of the world, including such far-off places as India and Africa where Englishmen are debating where to spend their long vacations. The registers at some hotels read like maps of the world, Mr. Evans said.

The number of automobiles entering the province has also shown a marked increase. There were over 3,000 more automobiles entering B.C. in May this year than in May 1946. Up to the end of last month, a total of 5,000 more cars had visited B.C. than for the same period in 1946. This June has also seen extremely heavy tourist travel here.

Also showing an increase is the number of inquiries regarding northern B.C. According to Mr. Evans, this has been brought about by an interest in the Alaska Highway on the part of the tourists. There are more inquiries regarding northern parts of the province than there have ever been, he said.

Altogether, the assistant commissioner visualized a bright future for the B.C. travel industry. Tourist accommodation is better than before and there are definite signs of expansion of this accommodation for which Mr. Evans said there was still need.

He pointed out that B.C. has an abundance of wild game and, in such places as the East Kootenays, has nearly any other game than in nearly any other place in the world. Tourists in B.C. can have mountain climbing, sea bathing or wilderness, as well as enjoying practically any climate they desire, he said. He also spoke of B.C.'s park areas which total 12,000 square miles.

Saanich firemen used 800 feet of hose and 2,000 gallons of water, carried to the scene on trucks, in a six-hour fight to quell a stubborn bush fire at a high point near the top of Helen Road yesterday. The blaze covered about two acres.

New Black Ball Ferry Chinook Here On Maiden Trip Tomorrow

Transportation facilities between Victoria and the U.S. mainland will be greatly improved when the new streamlined Black Ball Line motor vessel Chinook makes her maiden voyage to Victoria.

The new vessel, under the command of Capt. Lyle Fowler, is scheduled to arrive here at 9:15 a.m. (10:15 Victoria time) and will berth at the new Black Ball dock in the Inner Harbor. She will carry company officials, including Capt. Alex M. Peabody, president of the Puget Sound Navigation Company and Capt. Harry Anderson vice-president in charge of operations.

The Chinook will make her first trip to Port Angeles at 11 a.m. and will return to Victoria at 2:45 p.m. She will proceed to Seattle at 5:15 p.m. and is scheduled to arrive there at 9:30 p.m. Times mentioned are Pacific Standard time.

Everything that is new in modern shipbuilding for safety and comfort is embodied in the new all-steel, fire-proof Chinook. There are 110 luxury staterooms, capable of accommodating 208 persons, with several staterooms of size ample to accommodate three beds.

The ship can carry 100 cars on her spacious automobile deck. Large trucks will also load easily on the vessel which has two lanes, left and right, with net clearance of 11 feet.

On the bridge of the vessel, up to date navigation devices, including radar, has been installed, as well as a ship to shore telephone service. There are also public rooms which include a dining salon, coffee shop, smoking and writing rooms—all of which feature large window space affording passengers complete and unobstructed views of the scenery between Seattle and Victoria.

The ferry was designed by Gibbs & Cox, Inc., naval architects, New York, under the direction of the Puget Sound Navigation Co., and was built at the Todd Shipyards, Harbor Island, Seattle. She was launched and christened April 22 and underwent her trials June 15.

Her overall length is 318 feet with an over-all beam of nearly 66 feet. She can accommodate 900 passengers and is powered by twin-screws giving a cruising speed of 18.5 knots.

George Paulin is agent here for the Black Ball Line.

Variety Concerts Will End Tonight

Several hundred persons attended a variety program presented by the Greater Victoria School Board at Willows Park Tuesday night. The program featured the Esquimalt School band, the barber shop quartette, soloist selections by Mr. Lugin Fahey and offerings by the Willows' Monterey School choir.

The program was the third of a series of concerts presented by the school board. This evening the series will conclude with two concerts to be held at the Gorge Park picnic grounds and Cloverdale School.

Sugar Coupons Valid

July will be a good month for housewives whose supply of sugar is at a low ebb.

The balance of the canning sugar coupons, Y6 to Y10, become valid July 3, according to W. A. Hick, local ration officer. Also valid on that date will be S54 and S55, Mr. Hicks said. Another sugar coupon will be valid later in the month.

Says Cathedral Walls May Fall

SALISBURY, Wiltshire, Eng. (CP) — A warning that the walls of Salisbury Cathedral, like those of Jericho, might fall to a musical blast was given by W. A. Forsyth, architect, addressing the cathedral trustees.

In this case, however, the walls would fall not to the blast of a trumpet but the sounds of an organ.

"They are not affected by traffic blast," Forsyth said, "but there is one source of danger—excessive use of the 32-foot pipe of the cathedral organ.

"Our organist will forgive me if I suggest that these stops should be used with caution."

No Relief Supplies In Austria To Be Given To Russian Troops

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Austria formally agreed today that under pain of losing all help, no United States relief supplies will be diverted to Russian or other occupation troops.

This stipulation, plus a guarantee that the Austrian people will be clearly told whence the aid came was written into the first of a series of agreements under which the United States will spend $350,000,000 to furnish food and relief supplies to China and a half-dozen European countries.

The agreement, signed today in Vienna, also contains a pledge that full publicity will be permitted on the use of the supplies.

State Department officials said that two or three ships loaded with food, clothing, medical supplies and other "basic essentials of life," will sail from U.S. ports before the end of June.

Austria promises to produce as much as possible of the relief items it needs.

The restriction against using supplies to maintain occupation forces is in line with criticism voiced by U.S. officials. The contention is that Soviet troops live off the land as much as possible, instead of relying on supplies from the Russian homeland.

American reporters shall be permitted to "observe freely and report fully and without censorship" regarding distribution and use of U.S. supplies in Austria and of the funds which are received from the sale of those supplies.

Says Question Of Old Age Pensions Rests With All

Mrs. Nancy Hodges, M.L.A. for Victoria, told a meeting of the Old Age Pension Campaign Council in Prince Robert House Tuesday evening that the question of old age pensions rested solely with the people of Canada as governments, whether federal, provincial or municipal, would go just as far as the majority of people wanted them to go.

In her opening remarks to the council, Mrs. Hodges expressed disappointment with reports emanating from Ottawa on the revised old age pension plan and made specific references to the age limits and the amounts. However, she believed that, in some instances, the act revision contained some progressive steps. Among the steps she outlined was one which now allows married blind couples to draw pensions if they are both eligible, and the deletion of the clause referring to British subjects.

Mrs. Hodges believed the first requisite for an adequate old age pension plan was the co-operation of the provinces on pension payments. She found differences of opinion between provinces at present. In eastern Canada, she said, some of the provinces were quite happy with their present old age pension plans and seemed to resent any interference from the west. B.C. was often considered foolish and over-generous on the old age pension payments, she said.

Each and every person should remember the old age pension scheme is a federal responsibility and the B.C. government does not have much say in it, Mrs. Hodges continued. However, she stated, B.C. members were unanimous on the need for a better deal for old age pensioners.

She objected to any person decrying the old age pension as charity, but did say the answer to adequate pensions lay in creation of a contributory pension plan.

The meeting decided to send a protest to Prime Minister King and Health Minister Paul Martin against the Dominion government policy of laying off employees over the age of 65 when they did not become pensionable until the age of 70.

Wires will also be sent to E. W. Mayhew, M.P., and Mr. King urging "speedy enactment of the revisions of the Old Age Pensions Act on a more generous basis."

U.S. Industries First Target In Any New War, Says Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gen. Dwight Eisenhower said today that the first effort of any new war would include an air attack against the industries of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River valley.

The United States Army Chief of Staff appeared before the House of Representatives foreign affairs committee in support of legislation which would enable the United States to carry out its proposal to standardize the armed forces of the western hemisphere.

"The average American," Gen.

Eisenhower said, "surely realizes that in the event of a conflagration, the initial step would include an effort against the industrial areas of North America in the vicinity of the Great Lakes and St. Lawrence River valley."

"Likewise, the average citizen appreciates that these movements may be made through the air."

Gen. Eisenhower, who will leave his present post to assume the presidency of Columbia University next year, told the committee the United States was

"obligated" to hemispheric military co-operation.

Stressing the proposed United States program to equip, train and standardize the equipment of armies in Latin and South America, the general said:

"Should we neglect our responsibility it is inevitable that the other American countries will turn once again to foreign sources of supply and instruction."

He said the Latin and South

American countries were prevented from joining the Allies when the Second World War broke out because their armies were trained and equipped in various European ways.

"It is not intended to increase the quantity of arms possessed by any other American country," he said, "but rather to better the quality of their defensive armaments, probably attended by an over-all decrease in their military establishments."

Doyle Remains Unconscious After Suffering Knockout

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ray (Sugar) Robinson still was welterweight champion today, while Jimmy Doyle, the man who attempted to wrest the crown from him, was in hospital awaiting surgery for a possible blood clot on the brain.

Doyle was carried from the arena on a stretcher last night after being floored by a left hook in the eighth round of a scheduled 15-round championship bout before 11,275 fans who paid a gross gate of $79,340.

Dr. Spencer Braden, noted brain specialist, was to operate on the stricken fighter, still unconscious today. The last rites of the Roman Catholic Church had been administered.

After Robinson delivered the blow, Doyle fell flat on his back, unconscious. Referee Jackie Davis started the count but the bell ending the round sounded when Davis' call reached nine.

The fight went into the record books as a technical knockout.

LA MONTEZ HAS BILLING TROUBLES

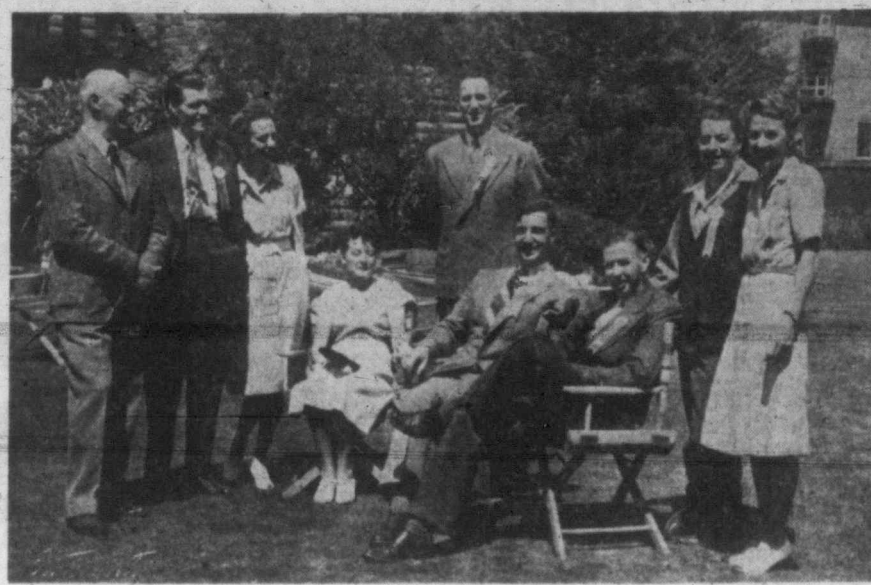

By ERSKINE JOHNSON
HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—Here's the lowdown on Maria Montez's current battle with Universal International, according to Maria. The studio cast her in a small role with Douglas Fairbanks Jr. in "The Exile"—it's only a 20-minute part.

Maria says she refused the role, saying it was too small. The studio threatened a suspension, which would disrupt Maria's outside film schedule. In retaliation, she agreed to play the part, but first she pointed to her contract, which specifies top billing in all her pictures. She played the role and now, says Maria, the studio wants to give her only minor billing. Doug Jr. is smack in the middle of the row.

MONKEYS AND HONEY BEARS ARE TAMED IN BORNEO

There are many kinds of monkeys in the jungles of Borneo. A person passing through a forest may hear them chattering and may see them swinging from tree to tree.

Natives sometimes capture young monkeys and keep them as pets. White families in Borneo often have monkey pets.

The monkeys usually behave themselves very well, but now and then they take to biting. A British official in the northern part of the island had one which escaped from its cage and bit several persons.

Charles Bruce, the official, happened to have a blowgun at hand. Quickly putting in a dart, he aimed it at the monkey, which had climbed to a rafter inside the house. The dart struck its mark and the animal dropped from its perch. It was dead in three minutes.

The blowguns of Borneo are from six to eight feet long. The darts are very small and are made from ribs of palm leaves. One end of a dart is covered with poison. Many natives are so expert with blowguns that they can strike a small bird at a distance of 75 feet.

People in Borneo capture and tame "honey bears," as well as monkeys. Honey bears make gentle and playful pets. There are many of these animals in the jungles.

Northern Borneo has wild elephants. The big beasts may be descended from tame elephants which escaped from their masters hundreds of years ago, and started new herds in the jungles. In this case, the tame elephants probably were obtained by trade with southern Asia.

One day Martin Johnson and his wife stood ready with a camera to take moving pictures of a herd of wild elephants. Native "beaters" had rounded up and driven the animals toward them. Johnson ground out pictures while the animals came close. Just in time the man and woman climbed a banyan tree. The leader of the herd was only about 30 feet away when Johnson swung safely into the tree, with his camera and tripod.

Larry Parks In Al Jolson Story

Columbia Pictures' "The Jolson Story," enriched with technique and magic and told in the melodies always loved, will open today at the Atlas Theatre, featuring Larry Parks, Evelyn Keyes, William Demarest and Bill Goodwin.

Based on the music, the magic and the times of America's greatest entertainer, "The Jolson Story" is described as a glowing cavalcade of this country's colorful show business. Any such story would have to be told largely in songs, and the new film is said to contain close to a record number of hit tunes for any one picture.

ROYAL THEATRE

Seven rattlers were killed on the first day at locations, 30 miles beyond Gallup, in Red Rock mesa, with United States Pictures production of Niven Busch's "Pursued," a Warner release which co-stars Teresa Wright and Robert Mitchum at the Royal Theatre today.

Navajo Indians helped director Raoul Walsh and his staff flush the location area, which natives say usually abounds in rattlesnakes.

Co-starring with James Mason in "Odd Man Out," now showing at the Plaza Theatre, is Robert Newton, English stage and screen actor. The movie was directed and produced by Carol Reed, director of the documentary "The True Glory." Other members of the stellar cast include Kathleen Ryan, 24-year-old Belfast discovery and Fay Compton, veteran of many motion pictures and the stage.

DOMINION THEATRE

"Dark Delusion," new M-G-M offering on the Dominion screen, is definitely the dish for those who like entertainment to move at a fast clip and who prefer their film menu spiced with generous portions of comedy, romance and suspense.

Latest in the popular "Dr. Gillespie" medical drama series, the picture returns Lionel Barrymore as the bull-headed, gruff but brilliant surgeon of Blair Hospital.

OAK BAY THEATRE

In his last film, "Sentimental Journey," William Bendix, the screen's "Magnificent Mug," was his amiable self, buying toys like mad for little Connie Marshall.

But in "The Dark Corner," the 20th Century-Fox hit in which he is currently co-starring with Lucille Ball, Clifton Webb and Mark Stevens, Bendix plays a sinister gunman. In the film currently at the Oak Bay Theatre, he is called on to snarl and threaten to slap a little girl for no good reason. But he loves kids.

CAPITOL THEATRE

Subject that has created more newspaper headlines and popular discussion than any other in history is treated with stunning impact in "The Beginning or the End," M-G-M picture now showing at the Capitol Theatre.

It is the story of the atom bomb, its conception, its beginning, its development.

The DOCTOR Says:

TICK DISEASES LIMITED TO FEW REGIONS
By WILLIAM A. O'BRIEN, M.D.

Although ticks can spread disease if they are infected, not all of them are infected and the diseases they spread are limited to a few localities. General warnings about ticks often fail to mention these facts, and vacationists are caused unnecessary anxiety.

Wood and dog ticks are found everywhere. Anyone may pick up a few by walking through fields or woods. If a tick is infected, it takes it from two to four hours to transmit disease, as it must feed before it can pass on germs. Ticks which are removed before they are through feeding are harmless.

Ticks injure man and animals by the irritation of their bites, by producing paralysis through their normal secretions, and by spreading the cause of Rocky Mountain spotted fever, relapsing fever, and sometimes rabbit fever.

Average tick bite results in some inflammation, but animals can become so accustomed to them, irritation does not develop. Tick bites go away of their own accord and do not require any special treatment.

Tick paralysis can affect man, sheep, cattle, dogs and cats. Probable cause is their poisonous saliva. Symptoms develop nine to 16 days after they have attached themselves to the skin.

REMOVAL METHODS

Rocky Mountain spotted fever occurs chiefly in Montana, Idaho, and a few other western states.

Eastern variety is seen in the Allegheny Mountain region.

Dogs can be freed of ticks by applying any commercial powder containing rotenone. Best method of getting rid of ticks on human skin is to remove them gently without squeezing them.

Phil Palmer Wins Despite Cut Eye

SEATTLE (AP)—Phil Palmer, 144, Vancouver, retained his northwest welterweight title Tuesday night, by earning a decision over Arturo Barron, 140, Los Angeles, in a gruelling 10-round battle.

From the fourth round on through the 10th Palmer fought under the handicap of a badly cut left eye but managed to weather a few rallies by Barron without being more than shaken a time or two.

Throughout the distance Palmer banged away at Barron's mid-section, with willing rights that tallied the points to win in most of the heats.

In all but the fourth, which Palmer lost on penalty of a low blow, and in the fifth, when Barron capitalized on punishing Palmer's bleeding optic, the edge was with Palmer.

Geographic Board Names Lake After Victoria Soldier

LAWRENCE RUSSELL

Awarded the Distinguished Conduct Medal for outstanding service in the face of the enemy, Sgt. Lawrence E. Russell, 140 Langford Street, who was killed near the end of World War II in Northwest Europe, has been honored by the Geographic Board of Canada.

The board has written to his mother, Mrs. George Russell of the same address notifying her that as a tribute to her soldier son, it has approved the name of "Russell" for a lake in the Mudjatik Gelkie map sheet of Saskatchewan.

Accompanying the letter was a map of the area showing the lake concerned, with "Russell Lake" underlined in red ink.

Sgt. Russell was born in Elfros, Sask. The family came to Victoria in 1938.

An N.C.O. with the North Nova Scotia Highlanders of the Third Canadian Infantry Division, Sgt. Russell was killed in action in Germany on Feb. 22, 1945. He was 23 years of age.

Band Instruments For Reserve Force Units

OTTAWA — Reserve Force units of the Canadian army interested in forming military brass, pipe, trumpet or bugle bands may now be issued with musical instruments. It was announced by army headquarters today.

Several thousand musical instruments, — brass, woodwind, trumpets, bugles, drums and bagpipes—are being made available to the 317 authorized regimental bands.

Some of this equipment to be released to Reserve Force units was used by the 11 military bands of the Canadian army and the band reinforcement group overseas during World War II.

Hold Inquest Into Drowning Tomorrow

An inquest into the circumstances surrounding the drowning of Victor Robert Hastings, 17, Alberni, whose body was recovered from Beaver Lake by Saanich police early Tuesday morning, will be held at Sands Mortuary Ltd tomorrow morning at 10.

Hastings was with a party of eight on a night swimming party at the lake, according to police, and while swimming suddenly went under and failed to come up again. It is estimated he was under the surface for 45 minutes before police brought him to the surface. Firemen's efforts with an inhalator to revive him failed.

'Jolly Trolley' Added To Playground Equipment

A streetcar, christened "The Jolly Trolley," has been added to the playground equipment at the Garden Library of Mrs. W. W. McGill, Tattersall Drive, and immediately made a great hit with scores of children who had reluctantly torn themselves away as the school bell rang a few minutes before the picture was taken. The car will be used as a projection theatre.

Saanich Will Consider Sewage Disposal Scheme

"There is no doubt that existing conditions in well built-up and low-lying areas are offering grave menaces to the health of the community—particularly to small children by direct contact," declared H. D. Dawson, new municipal engineer of Saanich, in a report to the Council at Tuesday night's meeting as a result of his preliminary survey of the sanitary picture in the municipality.

Mr. Dawson, who was recently taken on as engineer from Nelson, presented to the council a rough model scheme of a sewerage system designed to eventually embrace most of the municipality.

While no action on the proposal was taken by the council at this meeting, Reeve E. C. Warren armed each member with a copy of the engineer's brief on the subject, asked them to carefully peruse it and bring back their reactions to a special council-of-the-whole meeting Friday night for the exclusive purpose of studying the proposed set-up.

Mr. Dawson stressed to the meeting that it was "absolutely imperative" to give the scheme the widest possible publicity and to launch an aggressive education program to enlighten the ratepayers of Saanich as to the merits of the scheme in all its phases, what financial costs were involved to the municipality and the individual property owner and many other of its features.

He pointed out that the first consideration of the council was to gain approval of the Provincial Health Department on the project.

PLACES BLAME FOR EARLIER DEFEATS

"Of course there is the matter of the approval of the ratepayers. On a number of occasions in the past, I understand by-laws have passed the council but have then been defeated when put to the people . . . and it seems to me that there is a strong possibility that one of the reasons for this is lack of publicity and education," he said.

After noting the health menace to children by direct contact, Mr. Dawson continued with "but the danger does not stop there. Once the child is affected, the hazard of the disease spreading through schools has to be faced. Children of parents whose property is not affected by the proposed scheme are also exposed to the danger." The engineer emphasized that a number of new sewerage projects were under way or being mapped out in interior towns. The scheme put to Penticton voters for a complete new system was approved by better than 85 per cent of the ratepayers.

He told the council his model does not include house-to-house connections, that this was a cost which is always borne by the property owners concerned.

Mr. Dawson's campaign to swing the voters into line behind the scheme, embraces distribution of a series of pamphlets to all taxpayers, each embodying a brief write-up of one phase of the proposed scheme and bearing a diagram showing the area immediately concerned and the areas to which extensions could subsequently be made.

The campaign was also to stress to property owners that if they fail to endorse a plan for their area when it is presented, they will be left out of it and then later if they decide they want to be incorporated it will mean a duplication of expenses to them to have this done.

He said the set-up was planned on a local improvements basis.

PUBLICITY PLAN FEATURES
One of the features of Mr. Dawson's suggestions on publicity education was the construction of a plaster model to show topography and the concentration of residences, and a section cut showing the flow of sewerage through a house sewer to the lateral and then to the outfall.

This he planned to be shown at schools, accompanied with short talks on the subject by competent authorities, to parent-teacher groups, church clubs and other bodies, displayed at the Municipal Hall and in stores. He also wanted films covering the question shown in the schools, to various organizations, radio appeals, press stories and cartoons, addresses to the ward ratepayers and poster displays. To put the whole campaign into operation it would entail about $2,000, he said.

Mr. Dawson will sit in with the council at the Friday meeting to advise members on any problems. The council, among other things, will decide what areas should be included in the scheme and make suggestions as to what basis of payment should be decided.

Councillor Thomas Alexander asked the engineer to contact the engineers of the other municipalities to learn how systems in operation were put in, whether they were on a local improvement basis or otherwise, and other details. He agreed to do this.

To Seek Expert Advice On Airpark Rezoning By-law

It was made clear at the meeting of Saanich Council Tuesday night that the administrative group will take no action on the rezoning of Gordon Head acreage for the airpark site until a competent authority—W. S. Lawson, western superintendent of the Department of Transport—has been heard on the matter.

Before the "go-ahead" signal can be given on the project to establish a site for light aircraft the council must approve of it by a two-thirds majority vote. The public hearing on the question was held June 12.

Councillor John Oliver was of the firm opinion that before council action was taken "we should have Mr. Lawson talk with us on it and hear the facts on regulations involved in such an undertaking." He added that many arguments had been heard on the proposed rezoning of the area from outside sources, "but we should get official facts before we do anything."

Referred to the municipal solicitor for the legal interpretation was a resolution from the Saanich Zoning Board pertaining to whether private planes can use a private field in a zoned area.

Short Covering Brings Recovery

NEW YORK (AP)—Short covering on Tuesday's relapse brought substantial recoveries for individual favorites in today's stock market although many leaders still were restrained by the cloudy labor situation.

Forward movers included Anaconda Wire and Cable and Goodall-Sanford (on lifted dividends); Bethlehem, Youngstown Sheet, Armour, Pacific Telephone, Texas Co., Standard Oil (N.J.), Schenley, Texas Pacific Land Trust (at 1947 peak), Montgomery Ward, Great Northern Railway, Deere, Douglas Aircraft, American Smelting and Public Service of N.J.

Dow Jones closing averages:
30 Industrials 175.73, up 1.19
20 rails 45.66, up 0.11
15 utilities 34.50, up 0.18
65 stocks 82.69, up 0.34
Total sales, 63,000.
